PREFATORY NOTE

The present volume is intended as a Supplement to the "List of Geographical Atlases in the Library of Congress," published in two volumes in 1909. It includes an author list, a description of 822 additional atlases, mostly received since the publication of the first volume, and a general index.

The author list gives the full names of the authors, with dates of birth and death when known, short titles and dates of publication of the atlases described. It has been combined with the author list contained in volume two which has been revised and corrected to date, and will serve as an index or check list of the atlases now on file in the Division of Maps and Charts.

The same subject-chronological order as was adopted in the first volume has been followed for the general description of the atlases. Each entry bears a separate number, and to facilitate researches and references from the author list and the index, the numbers (3266-4087) follow those of volume one. Accessions received after the work had gone to press are noted only in the author list, and are designated with a star. In all, the collection of atlases in the Library of Congress numbers somewhat over 4100, including the additional entries.

As before, the maps and views relating to America, plans of cities throughout the world and material of specific interest are brought out in notes and contents. In order to augment the efficiency of this Supplement as a reference work, the number of full analyses and contents of important early atlases has been increased.

Among the atlases described are several of great rarity. There is, for instance, a well preserved copy of the celebrated Antoine Lafréry's Geografia, published in Rome ca. 1575. Few copies of this work are known and as they greatly differ as to their contents, the differences or variations in these copies, when known, have been given. These differences consist not only in the number and kind of maps but also in various editions or states of the same maps. Besides the interesting accounts, relating to Lafréry and his works, contained in Nils Adolf Erik Nordenskiöld's "Facsimile-atlas" and in Father Francisco Ehrle's . . . "La Pianta di Roma Du Perác-Lafréry del 1577." issued in 1908, both of which are mentioned in the descriptive note accompanying the entry (no. 3392), there has also been published by Dr. F. Rolands, in Besançon, in 1911, a very useful bio-bibliographical study of this noted cartographer entitled: "Un franc-comtois éditeur et marchand d'estampes à Rome, au XVI siècle, Antoine Lafréry." This work, however, was received here too late to be consulted for additional information.

Another atlas worthy of especial notice is the rare first edition of Abraham Ortelius' "Theatrym orbis terrarym, 1570" known as the "XX Maii" edition, a copy of which the Library of Congress has been so fortunate to acquire. Besides this, 15 other editions, including the 1602 Spanish and the 1606 English editions, have been added to the collection and are here described. In all, the Library of Congress has now 60 editions of Ortelius' atlas.

Of other works listed and analyzed in the Supplement, may be mentioned particularly, the famous "Arcano del mare, 1661" by Sir Robert Dudley, styled Duke of Northumberland; six new editions of Gerard Mercator's atlas; two of Willem Janszoon and Joan Blacu's Le théâtre du monde, the first in two volumes, dated 1635, the second in three volumes, 1638-40, and Joan Blaeu's Atlas major in eleven volumes, 1662-65, containing 590 maps; Henricus Hondius and Jan Jansson's Nouveau théâtre, 1639-40; Jan Jansson's Atlas minor, 1651 and Neuwen atlas, 1652-53; the rare collection of maps of William Berry, 1680-89, known as the English Sanson; another copy of Sanson's Atlas nouveau, 1692-96; the magnificent set of nine volumes, containing 922 maps, published by Cóvens and Mortier in 1689-1761: Nikolaas Visscher's Atlas contractus, about 1666, in which is found the well-known map entitled: "Novi Belgii novæque Angliæ nec non partis Virginiae tabula multis in locis emendata a Nicolao Joannis Visschero," with the view of "Nieuw Amsterdam opt evlant Manhattans." On the title-page of this atlas are found the following manuscript words: "Bought att Amsterdam Satturday 23° Septemb. 1676. Præbium 9 rix dollars (i. c.) 45/8. Anto ffletcher." The Supplement contains also descriptions of four additional copies of the Atlas minor of Nikolaas Visscher.

The work entitled: "La Galerie agréable du monde" published at Amsterdam in 1729, by Pieter van der Aa, although not strictly speaking an atlas, contains such wealth of cartographical and pietorial material relating to cities and forts of the various countries of the world, that the maps, plans and views, numbering 1525, contained in the sixty-four volumes of this admirable collection have been fully listed.

The index, bringing out the information contained in the titles, the contents and the notes, contains over 33,000 entries. It will no doubt prove its usefulness as fully as the index contained in volume two.

Owing to my own recent protracted illness, the labor of preparing the index has fallen upon my associates, Mr. Oswald Welti (Acting Chief of the Division during my absence) and Miss Mary D. Wightman, whose intelligent and most painstaking service in the matter, as well as the hearty cooperation of the entire staff of the Division, I acknowledge with gratitude.

Accuratissima orbis delineatio. Sive geographia vetus sacra & profana. Exhibens, quicquid imperiorum, regnorum, principatuum, rerumpublicarum ab initio rerum, ad præsentem usque mundi statum fuit. Præ missa est introductio ad geographiam antiquam. Qua orbis vetus, gentium migrationes, populorum origines & quicquid historias illustrare potest, breviter refertur . . . 2 p. l., 30 pp., 50 maps on 106 l., 1 pl. fol. Amstelodami, prostant apud J. Janssonium, 1660.

Note.—Index calls for map entitled Egyptus antiqua. Two maps with this title are given, the first by P. Duval, the second carrying no author. Contains maps by Jansson, Stella, Adrichem, Ortelius, Du Val, Cluver, Ewich, Lhuyd, Briet and Harcius.

The names of the following engravers appear on various maps: Hamersvelt, Rogier, Keer, Abraham Goos, Ende and Sævry.

The Library of Congress has also the editions of 1654 and of 1740. This edition is similar to the 1654 edition but has no dedication and the introduction is printed two columns to the page. The 1654 edition does not contain the extra map of Egyptus antiqua. Consult v. 1, titles 16, 17.

A compleat body of ancient geography, both sacred and profane, exhibiting the various empires, kingdoms, principalities, and common-wealths, throughout the known world . . . To which is prefixed, a copious introduction to ancient geography: containing an account of the origin of kingdoms, and the various changes they have undergone; interspersed with critical remarks upon several ancient and modern geographers, whose mistakes are pointed out and corrected. Now first translated from the latin . . . 3rd ed., enlarged with 11 maps of Laurenberg and Blanchard. 2 p. l., 36 pp., 61 maps on 130 l., 1 pl. fol. The Hague and sold by T. Osborne . . . London, 1741.

Note.—A translation of his Accuratissima orbis delineatio, of which the Library of Congress has the editions of 1654, 1660 and 1740. Consult titles 16, 17, 3278. The preface reads as follows: "It would be needless to trouble the reader with a large account or preface concerning this piece of ancient geography, which is so universally esteemed for its excellency . . . Wherefore we shall only take notice, that the several impressions which have been printed (with the latin introduction of Hornius or Van Horn) without any manner of additions or corrections, being grown at present very scarce and dear, we have undertaken to supply the public with a more accurate edition of it, augmented with many of Laurenberg's and Blanchard's maps . . . We have likewise, for the benefit of english readers, given the Introduction . . . carefully translated from the latin."

Contains maps by Jansson, Stella, Adrichem, Ortelius, Du Val, Cluver, Ewich, Lhuyd, Briet and Hareius.

The names of the following engravers appear on various maps: Hamersvelt, Rogier, Keer, Abraham Goos, Ende and Sævry.

Contains a reproduction in 81. of, Tabvla itineraria ex illustri Peutingerorum.

Braun, G.

Civitates orbis terrarym. 6 v. in 3. fol. [Coloniæ Agrippinæ, sumptibus auctorum, 1612–1618] 3292

Note.—Imperfect:—v. 3, no. 37, v. 5, nos. 60 and 65, v. 6, nos. 35 and 52, wanting. Corrected from v. 1, title 59.

Entered in Brunet and Græsse as follows: Bruin (George) Civitates orbis terrarum in as incisa et excusa, et descriptione topographica, morali et politica illustrata. 6 v. in 3. Colonia, 157?-1618.

Other editions as follows: french ed., Le grand théâtre des différentes cités du monde. Bruxelles, 1572; german ed., Beschreibung und contrafactur der vornehmsten städte der welt. Cölln., 1574.

Titles vary as follows: v. 1, Civitates orbis terrarum. (Colophon dated 1612)—v. 2, De præcipvis, totivs vniversi vrbibys. ("Præfaetio" dated 1575)—v. 3, Vrbivm præcipvarrem totivs mendi. ("Præfatio" dated 1616)—v. 4, Vrbivm præcipvarvm totivs mendi. (Colophon dated 1617)—v. 5, Vrbivm præcipvarm mendi theatrem. [n. d.]—v. 6, Theatri præcipvarem totivs mendi erbivm . . . . Anno 1618.

Privilegivm Cuesarex maiestatis, which occurs in each volume generally on the reverse of the title-page, refers to Francis Hogenberg as the author's collaborator.

Descriptive text is on verso of plates. Title-pages and plans are highly colored. Figures in the costumes of the period, arms of the country represented, and minor accessories, add interest and value to the entire work.

Plans of some important cities as follow: v. 1, no. [1] Londinvm.—v. 1, no. [46] Roma.—v. 2, no. [49] Vrbis Romae.—v. 3, no. [3] Chester [showing old roman wall and forts]—v. 4, no. [55] Roma.—v. 4, nos. [58-59] Jerusalem.—v. 5, no. [27] Antverpia.—v. 6, no. [24] Vienna.

In v. 5, map no. [60] Venetix, and maps no. [65] Neapolis, and in bk. 6, map no. [35] Pappa Vngar pl. and no. [52] Premislia Polon. pl., are wanting v. 1, no. [3] [View of Sevilla on which the dwelling place of Columbus] La casa de Colon, is marked.

"Hogenberg s'était associé avec Georges Braun ou Bruin, de Cologne, et Simon Novellanus pour publier ensemble un vaste recueil de vues et de plans, accompagnés de descriptions des principales villes du monde. Ce recueil avait été entrepris par eux sur les instances d'Ortelius qui le regardait comme le complément indispensable de son Theatrum orbis terrarum. Ils lui donnèrent l'aspect de celui-ci et le titre Civitates orbis terrarum. Le premier privilège qu'ils obtinrent de l'empereur Maximilien est daté de Vienne, le 28 août 1572 . . ."

"L'enterprise était vaste, et les deux associés durent recourir à quelques collaborateurs, qu'ils trouvèrent surtout dans les Pays-Bas... Georges Hoefnaghel et Corneille Chaymox, d'Anvers; Remade Limbourg, de Liége, etc."... Le tome III... est entièrement gravé par Hogenberg et renferme toute une suite de plans de villes des Pays-Bas... En comparant tous ces plans avec ceux de Jacques de Deventer... on voit qu'ils ont été manifestement copiés sur ces derniers.''—Consult C. Ruelens' Jacques de Deventer in Atlas des villes de la Belgique au xvi siècle. Bruxelles, institut national de géographie [1903] liv. 7.

of the german edition of G. Braun and F. Hogenberg's Civitates Orbis Terrarum (1586) He adds, that Romanus had made this translation originally for his private use; by chance it came into the hands of the publisher N. Bassaeus of Frankfort, the same who had published the different editions of A. Saur's german Parcum Theatrum (which is likewise nothing else but a reprint, geographically arranged of the above mentioned alphabetical indices of Braun and Hogenberg) At the earnest desire of N. Bassaeus, Romanus permitted his translation to be printed, and for the illustration of it the publisher made use of the same views which are in Saur's work."

Note.—Corrected from v. 1, title 66. Engraved title and portrait of Wilhelm, elector of Brandenburg, to whom the work is dedicated. Blad-wyser signed: Lud, Smids, M. D.

The view of New Amsterdam is mentioned by Asher as the only separate view of New Amsterdam that he has seen. He calls it a copy of Allard's engraving and says: "Like all the other engravings of Schenk, this one was excuted between 1690 and 4760 and most likely published in one of the various collections of views [of] different cities, published by him." Consult G. M. Asher's A list of the maps and charts of the New-Netherland. Amsterdam, 1855. pp. 21-22. "Mr. Asher saw the plate but did not know this work. [Hecatompolis] Of this work there exists a very rare edition publ. by C. Allard, 1700 [also] same work but with title: Af leeddings van een hondert der voormaamste en sterkste steeden in Europa. Amsterdam, Jan Roman. 1752. With printed table and index, without the portrait of the elector, the plates numbered 1-100." Consult Frederick Muller's, Catalogue. Amsterdam, 1872. ### COMMERCIAL.

Atlas maritimus & commercialis; or, a general view of the world, so far as relates to trade and navigation; describing all the coasts. ports, harbours, and noted rivers, according to the latest discoveries and most exact observations. Together with a large account of the commerce carried on by sea between the several countries of the world, as likewise of all inland trade by means of navigable rivers: the rise, progress, and decay thereof, in its various branches; with methods for farther improvements. To which are added sailing directions for all the known coasts and islands on the globe; with a sett of sea charts, some laid down after Mercator, but the greater part according to a new globular projection, adapted for measuring distances (as near as possible) by scale and compass, and authorized by letters patent under the great soal of Great-Britain. The use of the projection justified by dr. Halley. To which are subjoin'd two large hemispheres on the plane of the equinoctial; containing all the stars in the britannic catalogue; of great use to sailors for finding the latitude in the night. 3 p. l., 111, [2] 340, vi. 196, [11] pp., 52 maps. fol. London, for J. & J. Knapton, W. & J. Innys: J. Senex, 1728. 3298

Note. Atlas is in two parts with separate title-pages. Second title-page reads: A general coasting pilot; containing directions for sailing into, and out of, the principal ports and harbours thro'out the known world... To all which are prefix'd, directions to mariners, whereby the use of the globular charts is made plain and easy to the meanest capacity... by Nathaniel Cutler. Published anonymously. Probably the work of John Harris, John Senex and Henry Wilson, whose names appear on map no. 23, A globular chart showing the errors of plain, and the deficiencyes [!] of Mercators sailing, and discovering the true navigation according to the globe. Invented and performed by John Harris, John Senex & Henry Wilson. Contains a full page comment on the new projection by dr. Edmond Halley, in which he says that in this atlas the projection is different from anything that has yet appeared, and giving it his approval.

The Dictionary of national biography, states under John Senex: "About 1720, he, with two others made a representation to the house of commons on the subject of a new globular projection." It seems safe to conclude that these three men are responsible for this atlas though no definite statement has been

ITINERARIES.

Aa, P. van der.

Atlas nouveau et curieux des plus célèbres itinéraires, ou recueil de nouvelles cartes géographiques des voiages modernes de long-cours, qui ont été faits tant par mer que par terre dans toutes les parties du monde, & principalement dans l'Asie, l'Afrique, & l'Amérique, par les portugais, espagnols, hollandois, françois, anglois, & autres nations; tant sous les ordres exprès des souverains, que par des compagnies de négocians, comme aussi par des particuliers curieux et scavans, depuis l'an 1246 jusqu'à l'an 1696. La pluspart de ces cartes aiant été dressées sur les lieux par les voiageurs mêmes, & les autres confrontées & rectifiées sur les nouvelles observations des plus habiles géographes. Sur lesquelles cartes est exactement marqué la véritable situation des lieux, & la juste étenduë des limites de chaque païs, avec les routes & chemins qu'ont tenu les voiageurs. Ouvrage très-utile pour la comodité de ceux qui veulent lire avec fruit les relations des voiages. 2 v. in 1. obl. fol. à Leide, P. van der Aa [1714]

This english translation seems to have immediately followed the 2d dutch edition, and for that reason possibly is called on title-page the third edition. It is probably the first english edition.

Text is in english, in 2 parts, of 3 books each. Title-page for each book is printed on back of first map of each book, and bears the date 1639. Title-page of 2d part, 1st book, is printed "first part" by mistake and corrected with a pen. There are several errors in pagination. Titles of maps are given in dutch and french. Consult title (3332) for another edition with slight differences.

REPRODUCTIONS.

Bianco, A.

[Fac-simile dell'atlante di Andrea Bianco dell' anno 1436 illustrato da Oscar Peschel. L'originale si conserva nella R. bibl. Marciana di Venezia] 9 maps, 1 pl. obl. fol. [Venezia, H. F. & M. Münster, 1869]

Norg.-Title-page wanting.

The preface by Peschel is published in a separate pamphlet.

The Library of Congress has also the reproduction which belongs to Theobald Fischer's series of facsimiles, being no. 9 of the series published in Venezia, by F. Ongania 1871, also Peschel's preface of this date, translated into italian by Daniel Riccoboni, and published in a separate pamphlet; and a reproduction published in Venezia, 1879, which lacks pl. 8 and the preface. Consult v. 1, title 247.

Maggiolo, V. de, supposed author.

Atlas of portolan charts. Facsimile of manuscript in British Museum. Edited by Edward Luther Stevenson . . . 4 p.l., facsim.: 20 maps, 2 pl. 4°. New York, Hispanic society of America, 1911.

Note.—In his Foreword, Stevenson says of this portolano: "It appears to be not only the oldest known portolan atlas on whose charts any part of the New World is laid down but the oldest known atlas in which the coast regions of a large part of the entire world are represented with a fair approach to accuracy.

"Although neither signed nor dated, the several charts exhibited certain features which suggest the authorship of Vesconte de Maillo, and in the astronomical tables, on fol. 11b, an argument may be found for assigning it to the year 1508."

So far the earliest authentic portolano of Vesconte de Maiollo or Maggiolo is dated 1511, and bears the following inscription: "Vesconte de Maiolo cujus Janue composuy. In neapoly de anno 1.5.11. die xx January."

The original of the atlas which Stevenson reproduces was purchased by the British Museum in 1895. It is no. 2803 of the Egerton manuscript collection. Their catalogue of manuscripts makes the following statement in regard to it: "The tables are calculated from 1508 onward, and the maps were evidently executed about that date, probably at Naples. The volume appears to be a copy of one of the early portolani of Vesconte Maggiola of Genoa, and is the earliest italian portolano now known which shows the North Atlantic coasts of America. Consult Harrisse's The discovery of North America, 1892, p. 469." The reference in Harrisse, however, is to the Vesconte de Maggiolo portolano of 1511.

This first impression is known as the "xx Maii. 1570" edition. The binding is brown calf, with rich and handsome panels of gold on a ground powdered with gold, which still bear traces of the old enamelling. On the first panel appear the name and arms of Jean, comte de Hoya, bishop of Münster and Osnabrück (1566-74) and the date 1570 tooled in gold.

The maps are the same as those in the other 1570 edition. For this edition, with a list of the maps, and bibliographical information relating to Ortelius, consult v. 1, title 374.

NOTE.—Six small maps in text. Strabo's geographical work in seventeen books, translated into latin by Xylandro and embellished with twenty-seven of the Münster maps for Ptolemy's Geographia.

Nordenskiöld gives this edition in a list of pseudo-editions of Ptolemy, and comments on the work as follows: "Most of the maps of Münster's Ptolemy are inserted. They are numbered in connection with the other text and provided on the first page with the usual Ptolemaic legends, borrowed from the book viii. The supervision of the printing, however, has been done so carelessly, that the map of the world and three maps of Asia have been omitted, whereas the map of Greece and the 4th, 5th and 9th maps of Asia have been introduced twice. In the book there also appear small wood-cut maps of Euboea, Creta. Lesbos, Rhodes, Cyprus and Cphalonia. The work cannot be enumerated among editions of Ptolemy."

Lafréry, A.

Geografia tavole moderne di geografia de la maggior parte del mondo di diversi avtori raccolte et messe secondo l'ordine di Tolomeo con disegni di molte citta et fortezze di diverse provintie stampate in rame con stvdio et diligenza in Roma. eng. title, 167 l. incl. 6 pp., and 102 maps. fol. Roma [1575] 3392

Note.—Referring to this atlas Nordenskiöld, in his Facsimile-atlas, p. 117, says: "When, as is generally the case, the new era in cartography is counted from the publication of the Theatrum orbis terrarum and the merit of the reform is exclusively attributed to Ortelius, and to Gerard Mercator, great injustice is done to the draughtsmen of the excellent maps printed in Italy during the 6th and 7th decennia of the 16th century. These maps often served as models to Ortelius, and many of them may, without disadvantage, be compared with works of Mercator. Their neglect, in the history of cartography, is evidently due to the circumstance that the italian maps were published on separate sheets and never united into such a complete and systematic work as that of Ortelius' Theatrum or Mercator's Atlas. Many of them are, therefore, as are several of the most important maps of the same period published north of the Alps in separate sheets, entirely lost. Others have become so rare, even in Italy, that they have generally escaped the attention of investigators into the early history of cartography. Fortunately the most important maps printed separately in different towns of Italy had, in the 16th century, already been collected in one or more folio volumes, and provided with a common title, forming a magnificent copper engraving, on whose inner field is written [the title given above]

"The rich border, surrounding this title . . . is interesting, because it is the first instance of Atlas supporting the earth globe being used in print, as a symbol for a collection of maps. Neither the year of printing nor the name of the publisher are mentioned. But the engraved title is probably the work of Antonio or Antoine Lafreri, a french artist who, together with his uncle Duchet, founded a celebrated atclier for copper-engraving at Rome in 1540. This atlas is therefore generally cited under the name of Lafreri's Atlas or the Roman Atlas.

"Many of the maps were engraved in Rome by Laireri or Duchet, but notwithstanding the express statement on the title 'Stampate con studio et diligenza in Roma' the majority of them were printed in Venice or elsewhere in Italy.

"This collection is seldom mentioned in geographical literature. For example it is never alluded to by Lelewel, Humboldt, Peschel, Vivien de St. Martin, Ruge, Breusing. Probably only a very limited number of copies were originally issued, and at present this atlas is one of the greatest rarities in cartographical literature. Hence a notable difference exists as to the contents of different copies."

Nordenskiöld, further gives a catalogue (pp. 118-122) of the maps of two copies of this atlas, one of which belongs to the library of the Collegio Romano, the other to his collection.

In this list Nordenskiöld mentions 142 maps: "Nos. 1-121 comprise all the maps as well in the first volume of Collegio Romano's as in my copy of Lafréry's Atlas. In the library of the Collegio Romano there are further two other volumes belonging to the same collection. These consist, according to the catalogue of Castellani, partly of some of the above recorded maps, here found not in the first but in the second or third volume, partly of new editions of the maps in the first volume, and of new impressions from the old plates, but with altered dates and sometimes also with altered names of the editor and engraver and finally of the maps . . . " [nos. 122-142]

A detailed description of the copy of the Collegio Romano is found in Carlo Castellani's Catalogo ragionato dell' opere geografiche . . . nella biblioteca del Collegio Romano, Roma, 1876.

The work of father Francesco Ehrle, of the Vatican library, entitled: Roma prima di Sisto v. La pianta di Roma Du Pérac—Lafriry del 1577. fol. Roma, Danesi, 1908, contains considerable information on Lafréry and his work. In the Introduction and appendices, he tells all that is known about Lafréry down to the present time. On pp. 11-15 are found I primi anni di Antonio Lafrery; on pp. 15-17, Lo speculum Romanz magnificentiae; on p. 17, Gli ultimi anni del Lafrery, ed i suoi eredi. In appendix 12, pp. 53-59 is found an account and reprint of the index of the prints for sale by Lafréry, in 1572, a copy Ehrle found in the Bibliotheca Marucelliana at Florence. This index contains an introduction by Lafréry: A' Lettori Antonio Lafreri, and is followed by Indice delle tavole moderne di geografia, including plans of cities and fortresses, plates of ancient Rome, plates relating to modern subjects, history, poetry, Old and New testament, portraits, etc.

The 6 pages of letterpress found between the maps contain the following: Bet. maps, 9 & 10: Nova et antiqua locorum nomina in Anglia-Nova et antiqua locorum nomina in Scotia. (1 p.)

Bet. maps 45 & 46: I nomini antichi, et moderni della Italia . . . di Giacobo de Gastaldi . . . Cosmografo. (Dated, Venetia, 1564, 2 pp. on 2 1.)

Bet. maps 53 & 54: Nomina antiqua, et recentia vrbivm Græciæ descriptionis (Dated, Romae, . . . 1570, 1 p.)

Bet. maps 60-61: I nomi antichi, et moderni della prima parte dell' Asia . . . di Giacobo de Gastaldi . . . cosmografo. (Dated, Venetia, 1564, (1 p.)

Bet. maps 61 & 62: I nomi antichi e moderni della seconda Parte dell' Asia . . . Giacomo de Castaldi . . . cosmographo in Venetia. 1561. (1 p.)

Besides the copies of Lafréry's atlases mentioned by Nordenskiöld, (i. e. Collegio Romano, 3 copies; Nordenskiöld, 1 copy) other copies are found in the Lenox library and the Royal geographical society of London.

On p. 136 of Nordenskiöld's Facsimile-atlas, is the following notice: "In the Bibliothèque Nationale there exist two sets of maps corresponding to the collection here described under the name of Lafreri's atlas. Such collections, more or less complete, are also to be found in the Royal Library at Copenhagen, in the library of the University of Rostock, in the town library of Breslau, the private library of the King at Madrid, and probably at several other places."

"The maps in Lafreri's atlas are, with few exceptions, printed or dated between 1556 and 1572. The most important of them are by Gastaldi. Others are drawn by Pyrrhus Ligorius, Antonio Salamanca, Jacobus Daventerius, Pietro Coppo, Marcus Rota Sabenzan, Georgius Tilman, Giacomo Fontana, Achilles Stazio, Bartolomeus Phaletius, Johannes Franciscus, Antonius Florianus, and Dominicus Zenoi. The most prolific engravers have been Ferrando Bertelli, Paulo Forlani, Antonio Lafreri, Sebastianus a Regibus Clodiensis, Jacobus Bossius, Fabius Licinius and Fabia Licinia. Forlani and Lafreri were also publishers and dealers of maps, and judging from the expressions "apud" or "ex aeneis formis" we may even be permitted to consider as such Ioannes Franciscus Camotius, Michael Tramezini, Claudius Duchetus, Vincentius Luchini, and Bologninus Zalterius."

"The maps are all printed from copper-engravings, and many, from this point of view, are real masterpieces. Several of them, especially maps of the Mediterranean countries, were copied by Ortelius." Nordenskiöld's Facsimile-utlas, p. 122.

"During the middle of the 16th century map printing reached a high development in Italy, especially in Venice. Lafreri's atlas is not the only instance of maps first published on detached leaves and afterwards collected and brought into the market with a common title-page. Such a collection, in oblong folio, was published about 1572 by Camocio with the title: Isole famose"... Nordenskiöld's Facsimile-atlas, p. 118.

[7]—Epitaphivm in obitum Gerardi Mercatoris . . . signed Ioannes Mercator: Epistolæ dvæ duorum doctissimorum virorum doctoris Reinhardi Solenandri . . . & d. Iacobi Sinstedij . . . in laudem Atlantis conscriptæ; followed by Latin verse: In Atlantem Gerardi Mercatoris aui svi, signed Iohannes Mercator, verso p. l. [7]-verso p. l. [8]-Praefatio in Atlantem, p. 1.-Stemma Atlantis, p. 2.—De mvndi creatione ac fabrica, pp. 3-32.—16 l. incl. 8 maps.— Engraved title: Atlantis pars altera. Geographia nova totius mundi. Authore Gerardo Mercatore Rumpelmundano, illustriss Ducis Juliæ &c cosmographo Duysburgi Cliuorum, 1. l., verso blank.—Dedication: Elizabetae serenissimæ potentissimæq; Angliæ Franciæ et Hiberniæ reginæ, signed Rumoldus Mercator, dated 1595. 1 l.—Amico lectori, signed Rumoldus Mercator, 1 l. verso blank.-16 l. incl. 8 maps.-Noblissimo myltis nominbys illystri vire d. Henrico Ranzovio Daniae prodvci, signed Rumoldus Mercator, dated 1595. 11. verso blank.-26 l. incl. 10 maps.--Index, followed by colophon, [8] pp.

Most of the maps have descriptive text on the reverse. Very imperfect copy of the third part of Mercator's atlas.

The title, Atlantis pars altera . . . was printed separately and pasted over the title upon the engraved title-page of the edition of Ptolemy of 1578.

Raemdonck doubts whether the map of America belongs to this edition. According to his description, the Planisphere and maps of Europe and America are wanting. Of the maps dedicated to queen Elizabeth, Iceland and seven of the nineteen of Scotland, Ireland and England are wanting.

Only parts of his atlas had been published up to the time of Mercator's death. The first part appeared in 1585 and contained the three sections: (1) Galliae tabule geographica . . . (2) Belgii inferioris geographica tabule . . . (3) Germaniae tabule geographica . . . The second part containing Italiae Sclavonia, et Graecæ tabulę geographicę . . . was published in 1590. Rumoldus Mercator brought out the third part in 1595, a few months after his father's death.

Nordenskiöld in his Facsimile-atlas, gives a list of pseudo-editions of Ptolemy among them the edition of Stobnicza, Cracoviæ, 1512. This very important edition, though not properly a Ptolemy, is specially noted as containing a map of the world held to be the earliest map in which the north and south continents of the new world were joined, until the Waldscemuller map of 1507 was discovered. Consult Nordenskiöld's Facsimile-atlas.—Stevens' Ptolemy's geography.—Thacher's The continent of America.—Winsor's A bibliography of Ptolemy's geography.

The Library of Congress does not possess a Ptolemy manuscript but an interesting collection is owned by mr. Edward E. Ayer of Chicago. This collection consists of the following manuscripts:

Greek, Ca. 1260-70. Cor. & annot. by Nicephoras Gregoras ca. 1320-25. See Quaritch, Cat. 188, no. 1160.

Latin. Heading: Incipit liber quadriptivi ptholomei. 15th century. 234 lvs., 2 cols., 30 lines. 19 x 21.3 cm.

Latin. Begins: Beatisimo patri Alexandro . . . At the end: Claudij ptolomei viri Alexandrini cosmographiae octauus et vltimus liber a Jacobo Angelo e graeco in Latinum traductus . . . Italian ms. of the 15th century. 173 lvs. 29 x 19.7 cm.

Latin. Begins: Beatissimo patri Allexandro. . . At the end: Claudij ptolomej viri allexandrini Cosmografie Octauus ultimus liber Explicit. 15th century. 111 lvs. followed by 39 lvs. (including 16 blank) in different hands with diagrams. 2 cols. 31 lines. 28.9 x 20.7 cm.

Spanish. 15th century. On vellum. Begins: Aci comenca lo tractat del Stralan del gra strolech Tholomeu. 108 lvs. 17 x 11.8 cm. Diagrams.

Arabic. [Ptolemaeus constructio mathematica] 17th century. 216 lvs. 18.8 x 11.3 cm.

The New York Public Library has one manuscript of Ptolemy's geography which was purchased about fifteen years ago. It was probably written about the middle of the fifteenth century, and consists of the latin text by Donis with the twenty-six maps colored, the whole being on vellum.

The Catalogue of the manuscript maps, charts, and plans . . . in the British Museum . . . London, 1844, pages 3-8, describes the following:

Claudii Ptolemæi Pelusiensis geographiæ libri octo; Græce; tabulis geographicis, sive partibus earum septuaginta octo illustrati. Codex membranaceus, eximiæ pulchritudinis, et formæ amplioris in folio. Continet Ptolemæi Geographiam Latine redditam a Jacobo Angelo, et Alexandao V. Pontifici Max. dicatam. Scriptus ergo est Codex, A. D. 1409, quo anno unico Alex. ille Papatum tenuii. Ornatur mappis geographicis pictis, et literis initialibus coloratis.

Cl. Ptolemai Geographia, Latine reddita per Jacobum Angelum. Codex membranaceus, grandis, seculi decimi quinti, colorum splendore multo inferior codici ejusdem generis supra memorato ad num. 7182, eleganter tamen scriptus. Desunt pauca.

Claud. Ptolemæ Geographia, 8 libris. A. Jacobo Angelo traducta . . . Codex chartaceous xv.

Raidel, in his Commentario critico-literaria de Clavdii Ptolemaei geógraphia . . . Norimbergae, 1737, notes page 26, "De splendissimo codice latino Ebneriano." J. Pierpont Morgan owns a rare copy of Ptolemy's geography which has been erroneously described as a manuscript. It is a beautiful copy with colored plates and was bound for Mary, queen of Scots. This is probably the copy described by George F. Barwick as, A book bound for Mary, queen of Scots . . . London, 1901. (Illustrated monographs issued by the Bibliographical society. no. 1X) Troisième partie, avec L'appendice des deux précédentes parties. A Amsterdam, chez I. & C. Blaev, 1640.

In 1635 three editions of Blaeu's Theatrum orbis terrarum, were published in latin, dutch and french. The french edition was reissued in 1638. In this copy v. 2-3 are dated 1640. Consult note on the 1635 edition.

The french edition of 1635, v. 2, contains map entitled, De hertochdommen Gulick Cleve Berge en de graeffchappen vander Marck en Ravensberg, with text on the reverse, which is not contained in this edition.

Vol. 2 of this edition contains map entitled, Magni ducatus Lithvaniae, not in the 1635 edition.

Map entitled: Tabula Magellanica, in v. 2, differs from similar map in the 1635 edition.

The following maps relate to America:

- v. 1, no. [1] Nova totius terrarum orbis geographica ac hydrographica tabula.

  J. vanden Ende sculpsit.

Hondius, H., and Jansson, J.

Nouveau théâtre dv monde ou novvel atlas comprenant les tables et descriptions de toutes les régions de la terre . . . 3 v. fol. Amsterdam, J. Jansson, 1639-1640.

Note.—Wanting signature oo, La républiq de Gennes; partie occidentale. Titles of v. 2-3 read: Nouveau théâtre du monde ou nouvel atlas; v. 3, Editio viltima. An atlas which corresponds with this, was published at Amsterdam by Henricus Hondius in 1639. Jansson was a brother-in-law of Henricus Hondius and associated with him in business. When Hondius died in 1638, Jansson carried on the work, which accounts for the difference in publishers. Date on v. 1, changed with a pen from 1639 to 1640; v. 2-3, dated 1640. Dates on maps vary from 1624-1634. The name of Hondius does not appear on the titlepages, but the preface to v. 1 is signed: Henry Hondius et Iean Iansson. Title pages engraved and colored.

Contains one map of Russia by Isaac Massa. Map of the universe by Henricus Hondius, ornamented with portraits of Caesar, Ptolemy, Mercator and Hondius. For various notes on the editions of Janeson's atlas, consult v. 1.

Contains maps by various cartographers including: Ortelius, Pont, Lhuyd, Mercator, Massa, Henneberger, Keer, Mellinger, Laurenberg, Lubin, Pla-bitzke, Scultetus, Stella, Gigas, Emmius, Westenberg, Comenius, Lazius, Jubrien, Fabert, Hardy, Fayen, Beins, Goulart, Damme, Sprecher von Bernegg, Langren, van der Burght, Martini, Brockenrode, Pynacker, Metius, Freitag, Wicheringe, Gerard, Fer, Secco, Labanna, Cluver and Adrichem. Many maps are engraved by Keere, Hamersvelt, Rogiers, Ende and Goos.

Dudley, Sir R., styled duke of Northumberland and earl of Warwick.

Arcano del mare . . . diviso in libri sei. Nel primo, de'quali si tratta della longitudine praticabile in diuersi modi, d'inuenzione dell' autore. Nel secondo, delle carte sue generali, e de'portolani rettificati in longitudine, e latitudine. Nel terzo, della diciplina sua marittima, e militare. Nel qvarto, dell' architettura sua nautica di vascelli da guerra. Nel qvinto, della nauigazione scientifica, e perfetta, cioè spirale, ò di gran circoli. Nel sesto, delle carte sue geografiche, e particolari. Impressione seconda. Corretta, & accresciuta, secondo l'originale del medesimo eccellentiss. signor duca, che si conserua nella Libreria del Conuento di Firenze della Pace, de'Monaci di S. Bernardo dell'ordine Fuliense. Con l'indice de' capitoli, e delle figure, & instruzione a'Librai per legarle. Al sere nissimo Ferdinando secondo grandvca di Toscana. bks. r-v in 1 v. fol. Fiorenza, nella nvova stamperia, per Givseppe Cocchini, all'insegna della stella. Ad istanza di Iacopo Bagnoni, & Antonfrancesco Lucini, 1661.

Note.—Bk. 1, title, [2] pp. fold. fac simile, [2] 30 pp., 27 (i. e. 30) pl.; bk. 2, 24 pp., 15 maps, 12 (i. e. 14) 1 pl.; bk. 3, 25 pp., 8 pl.; bk. 4, 12 pp., 17 pl.;

bk. 5, 26 pp., 117 (i. c. 144) pl. Wanting v. 2.

The title-page is ornamented with a surveying instrument with a ring at the top. The British Museum has two copies of this date, which for convenience in comparison are here called copies A and B, while the Library of Congress copy is called copy C.

aloriosissima Republica di Venetia, and there is no ornament.

The second leaf in copy A reads, Serenissimo e gloriosissimo Prencipe. Signed Antonfrancesco Luccini. The page is full size, verso blank, initial letter E, five lines of text with ornamental head piece. This page is not found in copies B and C. Instead these copies have a leaf, l. 4 in copy B, and l. 2 in copy C, which is not found in copy A. This page reads, Avertimento ai lettori, e librai, initial letter L, 11 lines of text full width of page, followed by contents to all the six books of the work, in two columns which continue half way down the verso of the leaf, signature S, and catchword 24Le. Leaves 2 and 3 in copy B, and 3 and 4 in copy C contain the patent of Ferdinando II, grand duke of Tuscany, confirming Dudley in the use of the title, duke of Northumberland, dated 1620. In copy A, this plate is bound with the plates of bks. 2-5 in a separate volume.

Leaf 5 in copies B and C, is the Indice generale del tomo primo, with the initial letter S nine lines deep, text in two columns on both sides of the leaf. The first reference is pagina 6, figura 1, the rest have prefix p. i. e. p. 9, fig. 3; the catchword is Del. On the verso of the leaf is an elaborate tail piece and catchword Del.

This index appears in copy A on l. 3, the initial letter S is here only five lines deep, the first reference is Dichiaratione 6, figura 1, the rest have prefix d. i. e. d. 9, fig. 3, catchword Del., and end on the verso of the leaf with the words Il Fine, no tail piece and no catchword.

Leaf 4 in copy A, is the Indics generale del tomo secondo. Initial letter C, six lines deep, text in two columns, catchword disesi, verso of the leaf ends with the words, Il Fine, and a tail piece.

This leaf occurs in copy B, following the title-page to v. 2; on it the initial letter C is five lines deep with a blank space two lines below, text ends with catchword Car-; on the verso of the leaf the words II Fins are omitted, and the tail piece is more elaborate than in copy A. This page does not occur in copy C.

In copies B and C, the text of bk. 1, pp. 1-30, follows p. 5, then the plates of bk. 1, then the text of bk. 2, followed by the plates of bk. 2, etc., through bk. 5, which is the end of copy C.

In copy A, the text follows continuously i. e. bk. 1, pp. 1-30; bk. 2, pp. 1-24; bk. 3, pp. 1-25; bk. 4, pp. 1-12; bk. 5, pp. 1-26; bk. 6, pp. 1-41. The plates are bound in separate volumes, those of bks. 1-5 in one volume, without title but with the patent prefixed, and plates of bk. 6, with the title-page of Tomo secondo prefixed.

The plates of bk. 1 are the same in all three copies except pl. no. 25. They are numbered 1-27, with the following additional plates, 2. il. 2°, 6. il. 2°, 6. il. 3°, and 13. la. 2°. Plates nos. 9 and 27 are duplicates, carrying both numbers. In copy A, pl. no. 25, bears the number 25, and has in lower right hand corner Elucini fecit, letter H at bottom in center, below scale number 5000 and the words Sini Retti in the bottom scale between the numbers 3000 and 4000, and 4000 and 5000. In copies B and C, there is a different plate of the same design. It bears number 146. il. 3°, 24. A figure 5 is written over the 4 of 24 with a pen. No engraver's name, letter H, or words Sini Retti, appear. The plates of bk. 2, in copies A and C are the same except for the order which is described above. There are 28 plates, 15 of which are maps and two additional plates marked, 7. il. 2, and 8°. la. 2. Among these plates the one which is marked 6 in the 1646-47 edition is here marked 8, though in its proper order as no. 6.

In copy B, the regular plates nos. 8 and 8. la. 2. are lacking. The plates to bk. 3, are the same in all three copies, being nos. 1-6, 6. il. 2°, 7.

The plates to bk. 4, are the same except that in copy C they do not run straight from 1-17, but are bound in the following order, 1-3, 17, 15, 16, 4-14.

The plates to bk. 5, consist of nos. 1-117, with the following additional plates, 27. il. 2°, 33. il. 2°, 34. il. 2°, 44. il. 2°, 49. il. 2°, 49. il. 3°, 78. il. 2°, 84. il. 2°, 115. il. 2°. Plate no. 10 has 8 leaves and no. 13 has 12 leaves. These are the same in all three copies except that in copies A and C nos. 57 and 77 are upside down, and in copy B many are not cut out.

At this point, copy C, the Library of Congress copy, ends.

In the British Museum copy A, the plates of bk. 6 form what is usually the second volume, though in this case the plates to bks. 1-5, are bound separately in a volume, thus making three volumes to the set, as mentioned above. This volume contains the plates of bk. 6, and has title-page which reads, Arcano del mare . . . Tomo secondo . . . Impressione seconda, the dedication and imprint being the same as v. 1, with no ornament.

In copy B, the title-page has the same wording as in copy A, v. 2, but the dedication and imprint is same as on copy B, v. 1. There is an ornament but it differs from the one on copy B, v. 1.

As noted above, the Indice generals del tomo secondo, in copy A is bound as I. 4 of v. 1. In copy B, this index follows the title-page in v. 2, then the text of bk. 6, followed by the maps as follows, Europe, 54; extras, 4; Africa, 17; Asia, 23; America, 33; making 131 maps in all. They seem to be the same impressions as in the 1646-1647 edition but all but about twenty-four of them have the cypher L. 6°. added in the title cartouche.

The maps in copy A are the same as in the other copies. The plates in the Library of Congress copy of the 1661 edition are the same as those in the L. C. copy of the 1646-1647 edition, except that the 1661 edition contains the following plates, which are ommitted from the 1646-1647 edition: bk. 1, 13. la. 2°; bk. 4, small cross section of boat which appears on no. 17; and bk. 4, no. 5. For extensive note on the first edition, consult v. 1, title 457.

David Clément in his Bibliothèque curieuse . . . 1757, v. 7., pp. 459-463, gives the title of the 1646 edition, which he calls Première édition fort-rare, and describes the 1661 edition in detail.

"Il faut que l'on n'ait pas tiré pas beaucoup de copies de la première édition, puisqu'on a été obligé de remettre cet ouvrage sous la presse en 1661.

"On en trouvera un exemplaire dans notre Bibliothèque roiale, qui est relié en deux volumes de grandeur d'Atlas, dont le premier est intitulé: "Arcano del Mare di D. "Antonfrancesco Lucini a mis une dédicace à la tête de cette édition, dans laquelle il parle de l'auteur & de soi-même, en ces termes:

"Il S. Duca di Nortumbria, . . . consummò ben quarant' anni di sua vita in "disuelare à prò dell' humana republica, il presente Arcano del Mare, che io "da poi sequestrato per dodec' anni da tutto il rimanente del Mondo, in vn "picciolo vilaggio della Toscana cola sponda di Prencipe grandissimo, in non "meno che cinquemilla libre di rame hò intagliato per farlo publico cola "stampa."

"Après cette Dédicace vient la Table générale des figures du Tome 1. qui est suivie d'un Avertissement, dont je donnerai ici le commencement:

"La stima grande, e l'esito pronto di questa presente Opera ci anno stimolato "a farne la seconda Edizione. Alcune imperfezioni, e difficultà, che s'incon"trauano nella prima ci anno cons gliato à corregerla, ed ampliarla. In primo "luogo il manuscritto dell' Autore ha somministrato molte giunte, correzioni,
"e Figure. Nel secondo considerando la deformità; e l'incommodo resultante
"dalle varietà delle forme, e dalle piegature delle carte intagliate abbiamo
"ridotta quest' Opera tutta d'una grandeza, e quella amplissima."

"Enfin vient le discours préliminaire de l'auteur, & le premier livre, qui "ocupent 30. pages d'impression, & 27. planches gravées en cuivre. Le livre est suivi de l'édit de l'Empereur Ferdinand II. daté de Vienne le 9. Mai 1620, & gravé en cuivre d'après l'original, par lequel Robert Dudley est déclaré publiquement duc de Northumberland, pour lui & les ainés qui descendront de lui en droite ligne.

"Le livre second remplit 24. pages, & est orné de 23. planches. Le Livre III. Pagg. 25. Planches 6. Le livre IV. Pagg. 12. Planches 14. Le livre V. Pagg. 26. Planches 89. Ainsi finit le premier volume.

"Le tome II. porte le titre suivant: "Arcano del Mare di D. Ruberto Dudleo duca di Nortumbria, e conte di Warwich. ### Blaeu, J.

Atlas maior sive Cosmographiæ Blaviana, qva solvm, salvm, coelvm, accvratissime describvntvr. 11 v. fol. [Amstelaedami, I. Blaev. 1662-16651

Note.—The first complete edition of Blaeu's atlas, in 11 v. appeared in 1662. A second edition of the first volume appeared in 1665, all other volumes of the set being dated 1662. This set is of the latter edition. In 1663, a french edition in 12 v. was brought out and a second edition of it in 1667. The french edition is mainly like the latin edition of 1662 except in the enlargement of the text on several countries, the text on France and Switzerland being enlarged to fill two volumes instead of one as in the 1662 edition. Both editions contain the same maps with one or two exceptions.

This copy of the 1662–1665 edition contains many inserted maps which are not called for by the indexes. They are as follows:

v. 1. Nova et accurata totius Europæ descriptio authore Frederico de Wit.

 Novissima et accuratissima totius America descriptio. Per F. de Wit. Insulæ Americana. . . Per Nicolaum Visscher.

In addition to these maps v. 8, contains 3 inserted plates with text on the reverse entitled, Templum, et monasterium monarchorum Carthusianorum propé whem Ticinum, dated 1692. In v. 6, the map entitled, Fifae vicecomitatus, has been duplicated evidently in place of a map entitled, Fifae pars orientalis, which has been omitted.

In v. 2, two plans of Moscow are found; they are entitled, Tabula vrbis Moskvae, and Castellumurbis Moskvae.

All volumes except v. 2-3, have engraved half titles elaborately illustrated with symbolical figures. Maps also are embellished with figures and scenes of the various countries.

In the contents of the maps arbitrary numbering has been assigned for convenience in indexing.

Visscher, N.

Atlas contractus orbis terrarum præcipuas ac novissimas complectens tabulas. 1 p. l., 60 (i. e. 56) maps. fol. Amstelædami, ex officina N. Visscher [1666?] 3431

Note. - Written at the foot of the title-page are the words: "Bought att Amsterdam Satturday 25° Septemb. 1676. Præbium 9 rix dollars (i. e.) 45/8. Anto. ffletcher."

The name and initials of Anto. ffletcher are written on map no. 1 and 2 respec-

Index headed, Index et ordo tabularum, is written on last leaf in handwriting different from that of note on the title-page.

There is much confusion concerning the Visschers. F. A. K. Jolig, in a monograph published in 1903, gives the date of birth and death of the Visschers as a result of his investigations in regard to them. Claes (or Nikolaas) J. Visscher, 1587-1637; Nikolaas, 1618-1679; Nikolaas, 1649-1709. It seems probable that Nikolaas, 1618-1679, was responsible for the publication of this atlas. He must also have used the name Nikolaas J. Visscher as there are maps later than 1637 by Nikolaas J. Visscher, such as Ducatus Brunsvicensis fereque Lunæburgensis . . . 1650, and the Novum Belgium containing the noted view of New Amsterdam. Tiele gives an Atlas contractus with an Index et ordo tabularum and 91 maps dated from 1660-80. Some of the maps are by Cl. Jz. Visscher and some by Jansson, though most of them are by Nikolaas Visscher. It contains the map Novi Belgii novaque Angliæ nec non partis Virginiæ tabula multis in locis emendata a Nicolao Joannis Visschero, with the view of Nieuw Amsterdam opt eylant Manhattans, though whether the Nikolaas J. Visscher or the later Nikolaas Visscher map, Tiele does not state.

The Library of Congress copy of the atlas contains 56 maps only three of which are dated, no. 7, 1656; no. 13, 1650; no. 52, 1659.

From the written date of purchase on the title-page, it is certain that the atlas was issued before 1676. The date 1666? seems a probable one as many of the map makers and engravers were contemporaries of that period, though some of the maps were undoubtedly issued much earlier.

The written index calls for 60 maps; of these the following are wanting: Russia .- Palatinus Rheni .- Marchionatus S. R. Imperii .- Grzcia .- Candia. This atlas contains the rare N. J. Visscher edition of the map, Novi Belgii novæque Angliæ nec non partis Virginiæ tabula multis in locis emendata s Nicolao Joannis Visschero. This is considered to be the second known view of New York. It is supposed to have appeared between 1651, the date of the first known view, and 1656, as the map of van der Donck, which many consider to be a copy of this, appeared in the latter year. It is also contended by some that this view was taken from a sketch by Augustine Herrman. Consult Asher's A list of maps and charts of New-Netherland; and Andrews' New Amsterdam, New Orange, New York. John Romeyn Brodhead, in his History of the state of New York, speaks of a copy of the J. N. Visscher map as attached to the documents of 1656 concerning New Netherland, in the royal archives at the Hague.

Berry, W.

[A collection of maps of the world] 8 pp., 38 maps. fol. [London, W. Berry, 1680-1689] 3442

Note.—This collection of english maps by William Berry is sometimes known as the english Sanson atlas. The maps were published separately at various dates, and the atlas was issued without title-page.

There are only two other copies of this atlas known, one in the possession of Henry Stevens, son & Stiles, and the other in the king's collection in the British Museum, where it is regarded as one of the rarest of english atlases. Contains five maps of Ireland by sir William Petty.

Dates on maps vary from 1680-1689.

The maps of the world, Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Spain and Italy are each accompanied by geographical tables of the divisions on 11., dated 1680.

A list of 33 maps headed, There are these mapps published, all in two large sheets by William Berry, appears at the foot of map no. [32] The circle and electorat of the Rhine. . . . 1689.

Many of the dates on the maps are supplied from the Term catalogue.

Maps relating to America are nos. 1, 5 and 6 of contents.

[De lichtende zeefakkel] 2 v. 78 maps, 5 pl.; 64 maps. fol. [Amsterdam, J. van Keulen, 1681-1696] 3444

Note.—A collection of maps in 2 v. issued by the van Keulen firm, Joannes van Keulen 1, Gerard van Keulen and Joannes van Keulen 11. In an article relating to the life of Richard Holmes Laurie, which appears in The Gentleman's magazine of may, 1858, the van Keulen firm is spoken of as the oldest existing firm in Europe which had devoted itself to nautical works, the firm having then been in existence for over two hundred years; and that prior to the commencement of the 18th century the english were almost entirely dependent on the dutch for the charts and directions by which their ships were navigated. Their great and little sea torches as well as the flambeaux de la mer, of the french, were copied from van Keulen's great work.

The only maps in the collection which carry dates are:

- v. 1, no. [60] Paskaart vande west cust van Yrlandt. 1681.

Atlas nouveau contenant toutes les parties du monde, où sont exactement marqués les empires, monarchies, royaumes, états républiques &c. Le tout recueilli par les meilleurs géographes. 9 v. fol. à Amsterdam, J. Cóvens & C. Mortier [1683-1761]

Note.—J. Cóvens and C. Mortier brought out many editions of this atlas about 1730 and later, in 3, 4 and 5 volumes, with the title Atlas du monde or Atlas nouveau. This edition is the largest, consisting of 9 v. Some of the earliest of the maps were published by Pieter Mortier. Consult Ticle's Nederlandsche bibliographie van land- en volkenkunde. Vol. 9, contains the maps of America. J. Cóvens and C. Mortier, published atlases by Allard, de Wit, Delisle, Jaillot and Sanson. There are many maps by these cartographers contained in this atlas, as well as many by others.

Vol. 1, contains the general title-page printed in red and black, preceded by the engraved, colored title-page of Sanson's Atlas nouveav, which reads: Atlas nouveav contenant toutes les parties du monde, où sont exactement remarqués les empires, monarchies, royaumes, estats, républiques & peuples qui sy trouvent à present. Par le st Sanson . . . Présenté à monseigeur le dauphin. Par son très-humble, très-obéisant, et très-fidèle, servuiteur, Hubert Iaillot . . . Over the lower part of the title, covering the names of Sanson and Jaillot, a slip of paper has been pasted on which has been written: Le tout recueilli par les meilleurs géographes.

The title-page is followed by an elaborately illustrated index sheet entitled: Table des cartes etc. de I. Cóvens et C. Mortier . . . The center of the sheet is left blank for the list of maps. In all volumes except v. 1, a paper on which the list of maps has been written, is pasted over this blank space.

Vol. 1, contains the Inleidinge tot de geographie . . . Door den heer Sanson d'Abbeville . . .

This introduction was used in works by Sanson as early as 1681.

The following note is written on the general title-page of v. 1: "Cet ouvrage a été acquis par moi soussigné notaire à Gand en vente publique tenue par moi à la mortuaire des époux Montobio à Gand ce x^{bre} 1800, souantedeux. J. J. J. Ghesquière."

In v. 3, 7, the engraved colored half-title is signed R. de Hooghe, and reads: Atlas novum.—Atlas nouveau contenant toutes les parties du monde &c. à Amsterdam, chez Iean Cóvens et Corneille Mortier.

The title-page of Allard's Atlas Minor, with a slip pasted over Allard's name precedes the general title in v. 4 and 8, with a slip pasted over the word minor in v. 8, making it read Maior.

In v. 5, the title-page of Sanson appears showing evidences that a slip has been pasted over the names of Sanson and Jaillot, but has been torn away.

The vignettes on the general title-pages of v. 1-3, are signed J. Wandelaar del et fecit: and those on the general title-pages of v. 4, 6, and 8 are signed B. Picart idv. 1728.

The table of contents shows that the atlas contains many views of cities all of which are engraved and colored, also that there are many interesting maps of America in v. 9, among which are those of Henry Popple and John Mitchell. The Mitchell map differs from other impressions of the same map, in containing three insets and in the omission of certain text.

The first eight volumes of this set were purchased by the Editor in London from messrs. Stevens, Son & Stiles. Later he found and purchased the ninth volume from Martinus Nijhoff at the Hague.

The earliest date, 1683, is found in v. 9, map no. 25, Jobi Ludolfi, Habessina seu Abassia. The latest date, 1761, is found in v. 4, map no. 46, Kaart van de graafschappen Buuren en Culenburg . . . door m. Jacob Perrenot.

De groote nieuwe vermeerderde zee-atlas ofte waterwerelt. Vertoonende in sigh alle de zee-kusten des aardtryks, bestaende in seer nette kaerten, soo platte als wassende graden, waer van eenige van de miswijsingh verbetert zijn 't welk oock te sien is op de tijtel van de kaerten, en noch vermeerdert met verscheyde kaarten van groot besteck. Seer dienstigh voor schippers, stuurlieden, en liefhebbers der groote zeevaert. 1 p. l., [12] pp., [147] col. maps, 1 pl. fol. t'Amsterdam, by J. van Keulen, 1695.

NOTE.—The earliest edition of the Keulen atlas appeared in 5 v., from 1682-1684, issued by Joannes van Keulen, the first. This edition is given by Bom. Tiele gives an edition in one volume with the above title, containing 31 maps, dated 1681. Bierens de Haan mentions a one volume edition of 34 maps, 1688, and Muller gives one of 146 maps, 1694.

The maps were re-issued many times by the various successors in the van Keulen firm.

Title-page is by Jan Luyken engraved by Aernout Naghtegael.

One map is by Nicolas Visscher and the name of C. J. Vooght appears on many maps. Teunis Ys is the author of map no. [34] Paskaart van de noord kust van Moscovien... P. Pickart was the engraver of the map of the world by Vooght. These names are the only ones which appear on the maps except that of Joannes van Keulen though in the Bekentmakinge aen den leezer, van Keulen speaks of Jan van Loon and Klaes Jansz. Vooght as the designers of the maps. Contains a map of the Ægean sea in four parts entitled, Archipelagusche eylanden. Three maps are dated:

- no. [56] Paskaart vande west cust van Yrlandt . . . 1680.
- " [98] Nieuwe pascaert van alle de Vlaemse eylanden . . . 1681.
- " [146] Nieuwe pascuert van Oost Indien . . . 1680.

The astronomical plate, Stellatum planisphærium, is by Ludovico Vlasblom.

The following maps relate to America:

Thornton, J.

Atlas maritimus or the sea-atlas being a book of maritime charts describing the coasts, capes, headlands, sands, shoals, rocks, and dangers; the bays, roads, harbours, rivers, and ports, in most of the known parts of the world. With the true course and distances from one place to anot[!] gathered from the latest discoueries that hath been made, by divers able and experienced navigators of our english nation, accommodated with an hidrographical description of the whole world &c. By John Thornton, hydrographer at the signe of England, Scotland, and Ireland in the Minories. 1 p. l., 10 pp. [23], [2] maps. fol. London, J. Thornton [1700 ?]

Note.—This copy containing 23 maps is evidently in original condition. The two maps added were taken from a second, imperfect copy belonging to Henry N. Stevens, who has compared the present copy with the British Museum copy, which, he states has 28 maps but does not contain England, Zeloan, Medicaranean sea, or sea-coasts of Barbary. Two of these are in the present copy, the other two are added. "On the other hand the British Museum copy has several maps not in either of the Henry Stevens copies, but some of the British Museum are clearly later, one being dated 1702. From the evidence of these three specimens it is clear that the contents of copies varied as issued from time to time. Even the printed text exists in three separate impressions."—H. N. S.

A map of the world surmounts the engraved title. Maps mounted on grey paper. Maps no. 1, 8, 9, 12, signed Ia. Clark sculp., and Ia. Clerk sculp. In 1807, Dalrymple reprinted The nature and properties of the winds and moussons in the navigation from England to East Indies... by John Sellers... London, 1675. In the Advertisement attached to this reprint Dalrymple says: 'The work of John Seller, from which This Account of the Winds was taken, is entitled 'The English Pilot. The 3d Book. Describing the Seacoats, Capes, Headlands, Straits, Soundings, Sands, Shoals, Rocks and Dangers—The Islands, Bays, Road Harbours and Ports in the Oriental Navigation.' It is very rare, for I have never seen but two Copies, both in my own possession; but both imperfect... I have collated John Thornton, 1703, who has copied Seller, almost verbatim, even to the Title Page, inserting his own name instead of Seller, without the slightest notice of having copied Seller... A more barefaced Plagiarism I have not seen."

Loots, J.

[Atlas] 14 maps. fol. [Amstelodami, I. Loots, 1705?] 3464

Note.—Atlas without title-page.

Tiele gives the following concerning the Loots atlases: "Atlas. Amst., ex offc. Joh. Lootz (sic) (c. 1700?) fol. Gegrav. titel van J. Harrewijn met jaartal 1685 doch waarschijnlijk voor vroegere atlassen gebruikt; Korte verklaring van de weereld, 4 blz. Zeekaarten van verschillende groote, ten getale van 31 en 1 blad opdoeningen van zee-kusten. Een blad is van C. J. Vooght...en twee van Cl. de Vries. Alle op een na hebben 't adres van Joh. Loots.—Bierens de Haan, Bibliogr. Neerland. p. 173, vermeldt: Zee-atlas. Amst., Joh. Loots, 1685 (IV) pp. en 33 kaarten, denkelijk dezelfde als de vorige; voorts: Het nieu en complect Paskaert-Boeck van de Noord en Oost-zee. Ald. 1697. (IV) pp.

en 11 kaarten (?) en De Nieuwe groote Spiegel. Ald. 1719. 3 dln. fol. (?? Denkelijk Lootsman's Zeespiegel)"

Both of the Class de Vries maps and the one by C. J. Vooght, referred to by Tiele, are in this atlas.

The only map in the atlas containing a date is map no. 6, A new and correct draught of the channel between England and France. It has the title in dutch and french as well as english and contains the following note: Shewing the sands, shoules, depth of water and anchorage on the said coasts with the setting of the tydes and the time of high water as observed by capt Edm. Halley by his majtes comm^a in the year 1701.

This map and a similar map with the same title and note, dated 1714, in the English pilot, part 1, 1718, are evidently based on a map with the same title in the Atlas maritimus novus, of Richard Mount and Thomas Page, 1702.

Note.—Between the years 1648 and 1712, the de Wits, father, son and uncle published 380 land maps and 30 sea charts. Consult Gregorii's Curicuse gedancken von den . . . land charten . . . 1713.

The maps in the de Wit atlases have no text on the reverse showing that they were probably all published separately. The title-page is signed Lauwerens' Scherm delin. et sculp.

The index which calls for 130 maps is headed: Index et ordo tabularum hujus atlantis. The imprint at the foot of the index reads, Amstelodami, apud Fredericum de Wit, in Platen Vitulini prope forum vulgo den Dam, sub signo de Witte pascaart, cum privilegio potentisf d. d. ordinum Hollandise & West-Frisie.

Johann Gottfried Gregorii quotes an edition of de Wit's atlas in which the index is headed: Index et ordo tabularum Frid. de Witten anno 1706.

Five of the maps are dated as follows:

- no. 3. Novissima et accuratissima regnorum Hispaniæ et Portugalliæ tabula . . . 1705.

Moll, H.

The world described; or, a new and correct sett of maps: shewing the several empires, kingdoms, republics . . . in all the known parts of the earth . . . Each map is engraved on copper by Herman Moll, and printed in two sheets of elephant paper . . . 1 p. l., 30 fol. maps. fol. [London] J. Bowles [1709-1736] 3469

Note.—A collection of Moll's maps, some published with dates and others without. The earliest, that of Rome, was published in 1709; no. 8: A new and exact map of the dominions of the king of Great Britain . . . having been issued after 1735. In regard to this map, H. N. Stevens, London, says as follows: "I know of 4 states of this map. The first and second issues of this map are very rare, especially the first. The first has the imprint of H. Moll alone with his address. The second has Moll's name with address deleted and name & address of I. King added. The map in this state also has the Cherokee note [:'Cherecies 3000 men, one of y* Kings &c, of this nation was in England in 1730'] & the Carolina parishes, and was probably issued soon after Moll's death in 1732. The 3* state, Moll's name is deleted altogether from the imprint & the two Bowles' names & addresses put before King's.—In the 4th state John Bowles is altered to John Bowles & son."—The original 1715 Moll British Dominion . . . has not the Cherokee note and the Carolina parishes."

The map in this atlas answers the description of the 4th issue.

Atlas minor sive geographia compendiosa, qua orbis terrarum per paucas attamen novissimas tabulas ostenditur...—Atlas complet contenant toutes les cartes géographiques du monde, receuilles [!] des meilleurs auteurs . . . 2 p. l., 75 col. maps, 1 col. pl. fol. Amstelædami, ex officina N. Visscher [1712?] 3473

Note.—The date 1712 has been assigned to this atlas, as there are three maps by the widow of Nikolaas Visscher. Visscher died in 1709 and his widow carried on the business, so 1712 seems a probable date for the publication of this edition. None of the maps are dated.

Beside those by Visscher and his widow, there are maps by Schenk, de Wit, Schotanus à Sterringa, Sanson, Delisle and Blaeu. Several maps have indexes on the reverse. The title-page has been mutilated and repaired. There is a manuscript index calling for 73 maps, three having evidently been inserted at a later date, making the 76 maps.

Contains colored engraved half title which reads: Atlas minor sive totius orbis terrarum contracta delinea [!] ex conatibus Nico Visscher Amst. Bat. Ger. de Lairesse delin. & sculp.

Placide de Sainte Hélène, Le père.

Cartes de géographie . . . 1 p. l., 1 l., 31 maps, 2 ports. fol. [Paris, veuve Du Val, 1714?] 3476

Note.--Engraved title-page by N. Guérard.

Portraits of Pierre du Val and of Placide. The latter is very rare, the plate having been destroyed by his religious order because it represented him with a beard. Map of Siam with accompanying leaf of descriptive text also rare.

Moll, H.

Forty-two new maps of Asia, Africa, and America... All engrav'd, according to the latest observations, by Herman Moll, geographer. 2 p. l., 43 col. maps on 82 l. 8°. London, J. Nicholson, 1716.

Note.—The maps comprising this collection appeared in the Atlas geographus, published in 5 v. from 1711-1717, and, with the exception of being colored, they are similar in every way. They were probably engraved for the Atlas geographus, as they are an improvement upon those of almost the same size in Moll's Atlas manuals. 1709.

Maps no. [11, 12, 24-43] relate to America.

The following maps show indications of having appeared in a previous work by references to pages in either the upper left or right hand corners: no. [3], p. 35; no. [4], Tab. 41, pa. 363; no. [20], Tab. 44, pa. 386; no. [35], vol. 1, Tit. Page; no. [36], vol. 2. Page 1; no. [37], vol. 2, page 174; no. [38] vol. 2, Page 266; no. 39, vol. 1, Page 1; no. [40], vol. 1, Page 25; no. [41] Vol. 1, Page 209; no. [42], vol. 1, Page 325.

Atlas minor sive geographica compendiosa, qua orbis terrarum per paucas attamen novissimas tabulas ostenditur Amstelædami ex officina Nicolai Visscher.—Atlas complet contenant toutes les cartes géographiques du monde, receuillies, des meilleurs auteurs, et assemblées d'une manierre abrégée par Nicolas Visscher. 1 p.l, 147 maps. fol. A Amsterdam, chez la veve de Nicolas Vischer, avec privilège des n. s. les états généraux [1717*]

Note.—Map no. 68 by Gerard van Keulen is dated 1717. Other maps by various authors show the dates 1708, 1710 and 1715. Nos. [27] [55] [56] and [83] are war maps relating to the movements of the french army in France, Italy and Turkey, 16-(?) to 1716.

Titles in latin, french, german, and dutch. Several maps have indices on the reverse.

On the title-page the name J. A. Mellacedo, Lisboa, is written in ink. A card inscribed: Da Biblioteca de historia nacional, e bellas letras de Antonio Lourenco Caminha, is pasted near the bottom of page. The atlas is contained in a hinged wooden case apparently contemporaneous with publication.

A new sett of maps both of antient [!] and present geography, wherein not only the latitude and longitude of many places are corrected, according to the latest observations; but also the most remarkable differences of antient and present geography may be quickly discern'd by a bare inspection or comparing of correspondent maps; which seems to be the most natural method to lead young students (for whose use the work is principally intended) unto a competent knowledge of the geographical science. Together with a geographical treatise particularly adapted to the use and design of these maps . . . Imprimatur, Gu. Paynter. 1 p. l., 41 maps. fol. London, W. Churchill, 1718.

Note.—The first edition of this atlas appeared in 1700, and was reprinted in 1701. According to the Term catalogue, 1668-1709, a second edition was published in 1707 and a "second impression" in 1708. The fourth edition is dated 1726. The maps are engraved by M. Burghers, R. Spofforth, Sutton Nicholls, Ed. Smith, Benj. Cole and J. Moxon. A geographical treatise, called for by the title-page, is wanting. The Library of Congress has the 4th edition of the Treatise of antient and present geography, London, 1726. Atlas wanting. Consult notes on the editions of 1700, 1719?, 1722 and 1738? The following maps relate to America:

- no. 1. A new map of the terraqueous globe according to the ancient discoveries.

Moll, H.

Atlas manuale: or, a new sett of maps of all parts of the earth, as well Asia, Africa, and America, as Europe. Wherein geography is rectify'd, by reforming the old maps according to the modern observations. And the coasts of all countries are laid down, agreeable to mr. Edmund Halley's own map. Which is not done in any before extant. This being the first whole sett of mapps that agrees with the observations and corrections that have been made by the astronomers and travellers of this age. The maps are fairly engraven on copper; and the scale is large enough to shew, not only the provinces, but also all considerable cities and towns too of chiefest note. Mostly performed by Herman Moll. 3 p. l., v. [3] pp., 44 maps. 12°. London, for I. Knapton, D. Knaplock . . . 1723.

Aa, P. van der.

La galerie agréable du monde, où l'on voit en un grand nombre de cartes très-exactes et de belles tailles-douces, les principaux empires, roiaumes, républiques, provinces, ville, bourgs, et forteresses . . . dans les quatre parties de l'univers. Divisée en LXVI. tomes. Les estampes aiant été dessinées sur les lieux, & gravées exactement par . . . Luyken, Mulder, Goerée, Baptist, Stopendaal, & par d'autres maîtres renomez, avec une courte description qui précède chaque empire, roiaume &c. & même avec le sommaire sous chaque planche . . . Le tout mis en ordre & exécuté à Leide, par Pierre van der Aa [1729]

Note.—66 v. in 27. plates (partly fold.) maps (partly fold.) fol. 100 copies printed. T.-p. in red and black; title vignette. Table générale de l'ordre des feuilles et figures des lxvi tomes: t. 1, p. [7]-37.

Each section has also special table. The actual date of this publication is found in van der Aa's Bibliotheca selectissima. Leyden, 1729. v. 2, p. 379. Although this collection contains a large number of miscellaneous views of buildings, &c., only the maps, plans, and views of cities and towns are described in the contents. Arbitrary volume numbers used for convenience in indexing.

"This stupendous publication contains above 3000 plates and maps, many by the best dutch engravers, as Luiken, Mulder, Goeree, Stoopendaal, etc. Most of these plates have served before for the splendid publications of P. v. d. As and others in Holland, and are here reproduced mostly with broad borders, and with some new plates. The publisher says in the preface to the 1st volume that he has bought nearly all plates from various dutch publishers as: Blaeu, Visscher, de Wit, Meurs, Halma, Mortier, Allard, etc., and adds: 'Je n'ai imprimé que 100 exempl. de cette Galerio du monde et soyez assûré que je ne remettrai sous la presse un ouvrage si pénible sur quoi je garderai ma parole en homme d'honneur.'-The work is very rare; I have never seen or heard of any complete copy before, nor do I know of any one existing (besides that in the Royal Library of the Hague) It was called already 'Très-rare' a century ago in the Catalogue of the library of Dankert d'Assenfeldt, which was sold in the Hague in 1792, and where the following note was added to the title: 'Ouvrage curieux dont il n'y a imprimé que 100 exempl., dejà devenu trèsrare'.—In Ferwerda's Catalogue universelle avec les prix, Leeuw, 1774, it is called: 'Ouvrage curieux dont il n'y a d'exemplaires de reste à trouver que dans de grandes bibliothèques; vendu, vente Gritti 1769, flor. 160.—v. Dalen, 1772, flor. 105."

"The work may justly be called a 'Univers illustré' by far surpassing all similar publications down to our time. Didot's Univers pittoresque can not stand a comparison with it. It is arranged according to the various countries; the first volume contains a detailed index (37 pages) of the plates of all the parts, each volume being besides accompanied by a short geograph. and histor. description and a list of its plates. The whole is divided as follows:

[&]quot;Europe: 47 volumes

[&]quot;Asia: 12 volumes
"Africa: 3 volumes 66 vols.

[&]quot;America: 4 volumes

[&]quot;America: Nouv. Espagne, Yucatan, Guatimala, Florida, Virginia, New-England, Canada, Terra Firma, New Granada and Popayan, Venezuela, Guiana,

Peru, Brazil, Paraguay, Chili, Magellanica, Bermuda, American islands. With above 240 plates and maps. In order to give an idea of the variety of the subjects of the plates it may suffice to mention the last 5 plates of the last volume:

- "Costumes and cottages of the inhabitants of New Albion.
- "How the inhabitants of N.-Albion honour strangers.
- "Chev. Drake gifted by the king with the island of New Albion.
- "Battle between the spaniards and indians in California.
- "Savages of the Detroit of Frobisher.
- "According to the Catalogue of the books of P. v. d. Aa (sold in 1729) p. 379, no. 1175, this work is published in 1729". Consult Muller's Catalogue of books, maps, plates on America, and of a remarkable collection of early voyages. Amsterdam, Frederik Muller, 1872. pt. 1. pp. 1-2.

Covens, J., and Mortier, C.

Nouvel atlas, très-exact et fort commode pour toutes sortes de personnes, contenant les principales cartes géographiques. Dressé suivant les nouvelles observations de m¹⁸ de l'académie royale des sciences, & rectifié sur les relations les plus récentes des plus fidèles voyageurs. 3 p. l., 4 fold. pp., 2 l., 100 (i. e. 98) maps, 5 pl. 4.º Åmsterdam, Côvens & Mortier [1735?]

NOTE.—An atlas of this title was published at Leyden by Pieter van der Aa, in 1714. The table of contents of this atlas of van der Aa, is found in his Atlas nouveaux curieux des plus célèbres itinéraires . . . à Leide, [1714]

The Aa edition is a somewhat fuller edition, the index having 199 entries, while the index of this edition of Covens & Mortier has only 103 entries.

One map in this edition, no. 29, La Suisse, has the imprint, à Leide, chez Pierre van der Aa.

Map no. 96, called in the index La Floride, is entitled La Louisiana, in the cartouche of the map. This map entitled La Floride is found in Aa's Nouvel atlas, and in his La galerie agréable du monde, [1729] also in Nicolas Gueudeville's Lé nouveau théatre du monde, published by Aa in 1713. Consult Lowery's Descriptive list of maps of the spanish possessions within the present limits of the United States, 1502-1820.

The following maps relate to America:

no. 6. Mappemonde.

- " 95. L'Amérique Septentrionale.
- " 96. La Louisiane.
- " 97. Canada.
- " 98. Mexique.
- " 9. L'Amérique Méridionale.
- " 100. Le Brésil.

Wells, E.

A new selt of maps both of antient [!] and present geography, wherein not only the latitude and longitude of many places are corrected, according to the latest observations; but also the most remarkable differences of antient and present geography may be quickly discern'd by a bare inspection or comparing of correspondent maps; which seems to be the most natural and easy method to lead young students (for whose use the work is principally intended) unto a competent knowledge of geographical science. Together with A geographical treatise particularly adapted to the use and design of these maps. By Edward Wells, d. d. some time student of Christ-Church, Oxon, and late rector of Cotesbach in Leicestershire. Imprimatur, Gu. Paynter . . . 2 p. l., 41 (i. 6.)

38) maps. fol. London, printed by T. W. for J. Walthoe, R. Wilkins [etc. 1738]

NOTE.—The first edition of this work appeared in 1700, and was reprinted in 1701. According to the Term catalogue, 1668-1709, a second edition was published in 1707 and a "second impression" in 1708. The fourth edition is dated 1726, and the fifth edition, 1738.

The date 1738 has been assigned to this atlas as Wells appears on the titlepage as the late rector of Cotesbach, which rectorship with that of Bletchley in Buckinghamshire, he held until his death. He died in 1727, and the only edition noted as appearing after that date is that of 1738.

The maps are engraved by M. Burghers, R. Spofforth, Sutton Nicholls, Ed. Smith, Benj. Cole, and J. Moxon. A geographical treatise, to accompany this atlas is wanting.

The following maps are wanting:

no. 33. Travels of the patriarchs and children of Israel, &c.

" 34. Land of Canaan, &c.

" 35, Places in the New Testament.

For editions of 1700 and 1722 consult v. 1, titles 531, 564.

The following maps relate to America:

- no. 1. A new map of the terraqueous globe according to the ancient discoveries.
- " 2. A new map of the terraqueous globe according to the latest discoveries.

" 28. Present Asia. [Philippine islands]

- " 30. A new map of the East Indies, taken from m^{*} do Fer's map of Asia. [Philippine islands]
- " 39. A new map of North America.

" 40. A new map of South America.

"41. A new map of the most considerable plantations of the english in America.

Note.—No printed title-page. Colored title-page engraved by I. van Munnikhuyse, and drawn by L. Webbers.

Some maps are earlier editions of maps in Ottens' Atlas minor [1695-1756]

Dates on maps vary from 1708 to 1740.

Atlas contains, in addition to those by Ottens, maps by van der Aa, Allard, J. Blaeu, Cantelli da Vignola, Johann, Justus, C. and T. Danckerts, Delisle, Du Tralage, Halma, Have, Husson, Homann, A. & H. de Leth, J. van Loon, Joachim, Josua, and R. Ottens, W. Petty, Reland, N. Sanson, Schenk, Specht, Tjardae, G. and L. Valck, N. Visscher, and Wit. Maps decorated with coats-of-arms, etc. Maps 26 bis and 55 bis are inserted. Map no. 5 has in margin a copy of a letter by Swartz, printed in both dutch and french, and dated "St.

Petersburg den  $\frac{13}{24}$  January 1740". The map is of an earlier edition than the one in Ottens' Atlas sive geographica [1756f] Map no. 104, Imperium Japonicum . . . , was originally published in Recueil de voyages au Nord. Amsterdam, 1713–1738. Map no. 122 gives marginal notes on Antarctic exploration up to 1739. Nos. 4, 32, and 49 are historical tables.

Lotter, T. C.

Atlas minor præcipua orbis terrarum imperia, regna et provincias, Germaniæ potissimum, tabelli [80] exacte delineatis sistens usui militiæ ducum ac peregrinantium maxime accommodatus opera Tobiæ Conradi Lotteri . . . 1 p. l., [34] pp., 1 l., 79 col. maps. obl. 8°. Aug. Vind., T. C. Lotter [1744?]

Note.—Engraved title-page, Iacob Christoph Weijerman inv. et delin. Martin Gottfrid Crophius sculps.

This atlas is the same as Matthew Scutter's Atlas minor, in title-page, text and maps, with the exception of the fact that Lotter's Atlas minor contains 11 more maps than Scutter's, and the substitution of Lotter's name for Scutter's on map no. 29, Imperium Romano-Germanicum.

The additional maps are as follows, in the order in which they are placed in the

- no. 71. Nova mappa geograph: totius ducatus Silesise . . . sumptibus et cura Tob. Conr. Lotter.
- " 72. Princip. Vratislaviensis . . . Sumptibus et studio T. C. Lotter.

- " 80. Principatus Nissæ sive Grotkaviæ . . . sumptibus et studio T. C. Lotter.
- " 81. Inset: Carte von Deutschland . . . verfertiget von Tob. Conrad Lotter.

Another copy of this atlas in the Yudin collection in the Library of Congress, is a duplicate of the one here described except that in the Yudin copy the map Silesix ducatus . . . per Matth. Seutter . . . is replaced by Nova mappa geograph: totius ducatus Silesix . . . Sumptibus et cura Tob. Conr. Lotter. Date assigned to the atlas is the latest date in the atlas, found in the text under the heading Germania.

Beside those of Lotter, many maps were made by Matthew and Albert Carl Scutter.

The engraving of the maps was done by And. Silbereisen, Matthæus Petter Läinpacher, A. C. Seutter, and by various members of the Lotter family: Tobias Conradus, Geog Friederich, Gustav Conrad and Andreas Lotter.

The following maps relate to America:

- no. 3. Diversi globi terr-aqvei.
- "7. Nova orbis sive America Septentrionalis . . . cura et opera Matth. Seutter.
- " 8. America Meridionalis . . . cura et opera Matth. Seutter.

m Note.}$ —Edited by A. Gonzalez de Barcia Carballido y Zufigo; quoted as the 2d edition by some bibliographers, as the 3d by others who quote the Antwerp edition of 1728 as the 2d.

Engraved title-pages, each with the royal coat of arms of Spain, portraits of the discoverers and conquistadores, and pictures (copied from the t.-p. of the original edition) representing events during the discovery and conquest of Spanish America or customs of its inhabitants. Each decade has an engraved headpiece. The t.-p. of the various copies of this edition differ in date, some being dated 1725, 1726, 1728, or most commonly 1730, although the last decade was printed in 1728. The present copy agrees with the large-paper copy, described by Medina, Bibl. hisp. amer., t. iv, although its paper measures only 29.1 x 20^{cm}. The dates of the 1st, 4th, 6th, 7th, and 8th decades have been altered in this copy from 1726 to 1730, that of the 5th from 1727 to 1728. The Descripcion de las Indias Ocidentales is placed in front of the first decade. It is accompanied by 14 maps, engr. on copper.

Clark, M.

[Charts of the coast of America from Cape Breton to the entrance of the gulf of Mexico] 1 p. l., 18 maps. fol. [Boston, M. Clark, 1790]

Note.—No title-page.

The maps carry the following engraved inscription, signed in manuscript by Osgood Carleton: "Being recommended by the Boston marine society for the purpose of examining m Clarks charts I have carefully examined and compared this with Des Barres Hollands & other good authorities & find it an accurate chart of the coast &c. it contains."

On the preliminary leaf, part of the certificate reads: "Although these charts are sold singly to some, and for that reason, a certificate of the examination is engraven on each plate; yet as the whole are bound together in this book, and have passed the same inspection, it is presumed, that signing this will be satisfactory without putting my name to each particular chart; ——— Teacher of mathematics in Boston. N.B. Those sold in separate sheets, will be signed as above." A space before "Teacher of mathematics" etc. left for the name, Osgood Carleton, in this case is blank, which together with the fact that the maps are signed shows that this atlas is not one of the original books but was collected and bound together at a later date.

The order of the charts is reversed beginning with no. 18 and ending with no. 1. The following is from the Boston Gazette, february 22, 1790:

"NEW SEA CHARTS.

Proposals for Publishing by Subscription,

A Complete set of Charts of the Coast of America, extending from Cape Breton on the East, into the Gulph of Mexico, with Nautical Directions, in which will be exhibited the most remarkable head lands upon the Coast. The whole to be accurately protracted from the latest surveys of Holland and Debarr, drawn on a large scale and convenient runs—To which will be added, printed directions for sailing the Coasts and entering the harbor.

Conditions.

- I. This work will be handsomely engraved and printed on superfine double crown American paper.
- II. The whole will be comprized in 15 numbers (or sheets) at 2s. each. The overplus given gratis.
- m. Each number will be delivered weekly at the dwelling of the subscribers.
- IV. Those who subscribe for to sell again, shall have large allowance.

The above plan is intended to comprize one general Chart, but for convenience it will be divided into five parts, each part to be lined with blue and delivered at nine shillings. It is also calculated so as to be bound into a book, and will be delivered at thirty-six shillings.

To the Public.

When so many attempts are making toward the advancing the interests of the arts and manufactures of this Country—When the vast extent of sea coast on the American shores, and the numerous and dangerous rocks, shoals &c. are considered, the utility of such a work will be readily admitted—more especially when there are so few charts of this coast extant, and those drawn on an inconsiderable scale.

It is not the intention of the Publisher to impose a work of this kind on the public, until it has had the minutest inspection by Mr. Osgood Carleton, recommended by the Marine Society in Boston, and who is allowed to be competant to the business by the certificate following, viz.

At a meeting of the Boston Marine Society the 5th of January, 1790.—Voted, "That the Boston Marine Society do recommend Mr. Osgood Carleton, as a person of good character and well acquainted with the Mathematicks."

No Chart will be published without this Certificate signed by Mr. Carleton's own hand in Manuscript. Although it is not in the power of the wisest man in the best of causes to insure success, yet from the examinations which have been already had, and the respectable list which have been added to the subscriptions, the Editor flatters himself, that while he aims at Public utility the patronage of a generous Public will enable him to pursue it. Matthew Clark. Subscriptions are received at Mr. Brook's Insurance Offices; at Col. Colman's; at the Eastern Coffee House, and the principal Booksellers in Boston.

The above Charts may be had of Mr. Andrew Newell, Mathematical Instrument. Maker, State-street, and Mr. William Deblois, No. 2, Long-Wharf."

The following is found in the Boston Gazette, July 5, 1790:

"Just Published,
(Price Thirty-six Shillings)

And to be Sold by Matthew Clark, and by Osgood Carleton, in his School near Oliver's Dock, (where he continues to teach Navigation, &c. and procures Books and Charts for Seamen on the lowest Terms)

WARS.

Camocio, G. F.

Isole famose porti, fortezze, e terre maritime sottoposte alla scr. ma sig. ria di Venetia, ad altri principi christiani, et al sig. ri Turco, nouamete poste in luce. eng. title, [79] maps, 1 pl. obl. 12°. In Venetia, alla libraria del segno di S. Marco [1574]

Note.—Corrected from v. 1, title 2815. Maps no. 1-3, 49-51, 65, 67, wanting. The engraving at the top of the title-page represents attributes of war, cannon, shields, armor, drums, swords, etc.; at the left is Mars, at the right Neptune; at the foot are two smaller engravings, one representing a battle, the other a sea-fight, between these two are the initials N. B.

A collection of maps to illustrate the war between Turkey and Venice, 1570-73, comprising maps of the coasts and of the most important ports of Austria, Turkey, Greece, and of the principal islands of the Mediterranean sea; also of Italy, England. Ireland. Iceland.

Map no. 38, a plan of the battle of Lepanto 1571; no. 66, a plan of Constanti,

"During the middle of the 16th century map printing reached a high development in Italy, especially in Venice. Lafreri's atlas is not the only instance of maps first published on detached leaves and afterwards collected and brought into the market with a common title-page. Such a collection, in oblong folio. was published about 1572 by Camocio with the title: Isole famose, porti, fortezze . . . This collection contains 88 maps generally insignificant in a geographical respect, though often excellent as copper-engravings. An almost complete copy is preserved in the Royal Library at Stockholm." Consult Nordenskiöld's Fac-simile atlas p. 118 n.

"Non comprendono le Isole circonvicine a Venezia; ma quelle dell' Istria. Dalmazia, Albania ed altre già soggette luogo a questo libro, anzichè notario ove parlasi delle Isole vicine alla nostra Ctttà. L'autor principale è Gianfrancesco Camozio che dedica il primo intaglio fatto fare da lui (rappresentante il golfo de Venezia) ad Andrea Gradenigo, a. 1571. Abbiamo detto principale, poichè veggiamo diverse maniere d'intaglio; e v'è il Vero sito e contada di Modon intagliato al num. 45 da Martino Rota da Sebenico e altre vedute intagliate da Domenico Zenoi, a. 1566-1568; e una col num. 87, e coll'anno 1565, ov' è scritto: Paolo Furlani Veronese intagliatore in Venezia all'insegna della colona. Cosicchè pare che il Camozio, che stava alla libraria della Piramide, sia l'assuntore, il raccoglitore degl' intagli altrui, non già incisore egli stesso. Notisi però che vi sono esemplari più o meno copiosi di intagli, sebbene sieno numerati. Dello Zenoi e del Rota si è già parlato dal Gori Gandellini e dal suo continuatore de Angelis; ma del Forlani o Furlani non è menzione in quei due illustri scrittori. Il qual Forlani ha: Il Golfo di Venetia carta intagliata in rame de Paolo Forlani con ogni diligenza l'anno MDLXVIII e da lui dedidata ai n. u. Piaro (così) Badoero e Autorio Diedo. Il disegnatore apparisce dalla dedicazione essere il dotto Gastaldo." Consult E. A. Cicogna's Saggio di bibliografia Veneziana. 1847. p. 709.

In 1584, Christopher Plantin published at his Leyden establishment, for Luc Janszoon Waghenaer, the first edition of his marine atlas. It was in dutch and contained 23 maps engraved on copper by Joannes a Doetecum, dated from 1580 to 1583. In 1585, a second edition was brought out with an additional volume, and in the following year another dutch edition with several added maps, was followed by this latin edition translated by Martin Everaerts of Bruges. It contains the 44 maps of the first edition, and one of those added to the 1585-1586 dutch edition, i. e., Mappa fluminis dicti vulgo Beldt.

The title-page is the one engraved on copper by Joannes a Doetecum for the original edition . . . . The maps are colored and have descriptive text on the reverse.

The first of the diagrams included in the text, Organum Vranicum, has lost the volvelle.

Translation by sir Anthony Ashley (1551-1627) of Lucas Janz Waghenaer's Spieghel der zeevaardt vande navigatie der westerche zee. Leyden, 1584. The Dictionary of national biography, v. 2, p. 170, states: "Four years before the defeat of the spanish armada in 1588 there was published in Holland, the first known collection of 'Sea charts' for sailors, afterwards known as a 'waggoner'... It would appear that in the following year [1585] lord Charles Howard, of Effingham, lord admiral of England, drew the attention of the privy council to the work, which met a great want of our early seamen under the Tudors. The work being 'esteemed by the chief personages of the grave counsell worthy to be translated and printed into a language familiar to all nations', the task of translating it into english from the dutch was committed into the hands of Anthony Ashley."

Concerning the original work, Nordenskiöld, in his Periplus, p. 107, states: "A new period in the history of sailing-directions as well as in that of charts begins with Lucas Janszoon Waghenaer of Enkhuysen. His two celebrated works Spieghel der zeevaerdt (1st ed. 1584) and Thresoor de zeevaert (1st ed. 1592) contain sailing directions in the text, besides nautical instructions, etc. In the first these directions are rather brief, and are accompanied by short statements as to the trade and chief products of the various countries. Here we find for the first tme in printed literature a direction for sailing along the east coast of Sweden to Stockholm . . . " In his Fac-simile atlas, page 50, he further states: "The first part of this marine-atlas begins with a short treatise on the principles of navigation, followed by a general map of western Europe on the equidistant projection of Marienus, provided with a number of compassroses, and intersected by compass-lines. Then follows 22 special maps of the coasts between Enkhuisen and Cadiz. The second part contains, besides the text, 21 maps of the coasts of the North Sea and the Baltic. The special maps are not graduated but are provided with compass-roses and generally also with a scale in Spanish and German miles; one degree is stated to contain 17% of the former and 15 of the latter. In several places on the maps the soundings are given. This work is the finest collection of sea-charts published in print. It was much appreciated amoug the sea-faring nations of Europe, and published in a number of editions in various languages . . . Evidently the work is partly based on Italian or Catalan portolanos, and partly on ancient sailing directions for the Baltic. The same work was also published in Leyden in 1592 and 1598 in oblong folio with double-folded sea-, or coast-charts, of size 195 x 555 . . . "

"En 1584 Plantin publia à Leyde la première édition du" Spieghel der zeevaerdt par Lucas Jansz. Waghenaer, renfermant 23 cartes maritimes gravies par Joannes a Doetecum. L'ouvrage fut exécuté entièrement aux frais de l'auteur et imprimé sur le papier acheté par Plantin pour le grand Antiphonaire d'Espagne. La même année, il fit paraître une édition de cet ouvrage, en deux parties, contenant 44 cartes. En 1585, Plantin imprima une troisième édition, semblable à la seconde, et Raphelengien en publia une quatrième édition. En 1586, ce dernier sit paraître une traduction latine du Spieghel der zeevaerdt, faite par Martin Everaerts de Bruges, renfermant le même nombre de cartes que les trois éditions néerlandaises précédentes. Cet atlas de cartes maritimes, le premier qui parût, eut un succès énorme et de nombreuses éditions en différentes langues, postérieures à celles que nous venous d'énumérer, virent successivement le jour." M. Rooses', Christophe Plantin. Anvers, 1882, p. 355. The maps comprising this work are of special interest, being classed among the earliest specimens of copper-plate engraving in England. They are uncolored, in this copy, but are most elaborately executed and embelished with ornamental cartouches, ships, fish, etc. The engravers were Jodocus Hondius, familiar as a map engraver and publisher of atlases;-Johannes Rutlinger, engraver of a large portrait, now excessively rare, of Queen Elizabeth; Augustine Ryther, engraver of charts illustrating the spanish armads;-and Theodore de Bry who signed the title-page in addition to nine maps.

The title page is substantially the same as that, by Joannes a Doetecum, in the first edition of the work in dutch, as reproduced in Rooses' Christopher Plantin, pl. no. 91. Only minor changes such as the substitution of figures and ornaments were made by De Bry. "The other batch of plates done and signed by De Bry on his second journey to England in 1588 are still humbler and more journeymanlike in character. It was in the months following the Armada: navigation and exploration, ocean-trade and ocean-warfare, were more and more occupying men's thoughts in all the countries of western Europe, and especially in England. The time was opportune for the publication by Sir Anthony Ashley, clerk of the privy council, of an English translation on which he had been employed for several years, of an important dutch work on navigation . . . by Lucas Wagenaer of Enkhuizen. The title-page and most of the sea-charts in the original edition had been engraved by J. van Duetechum. For Ashley's translation several hands, including De Bry, Ryther and Jodocus Hondius, were employed to copy them with slight modifications. Ashley, in his epistle dedicatory to the lord chancellor, sir Christopher Hatton, speaks slightingly of these engravers as follows: 'By reason of my daylie attendance on your l. and the rest of my lordes of her maiesties most honorable privie counsell, I was forced to take such time for this worke, as I could, by stealth, both for the translation it selfe, and for the overseeing of the negligent gravers: besides many other my perticuler and private lets.' It is odd to find so famous a craftsman as Theodore De Bry reckoned a negligent engraver.'' Sidney Colvin. Early engraving & engravers in England. London, 1905. p. 40.

This copy is complete with the exception of the revolving diagram, on recto of l. B₃, which is supplied in facsimile from the British Museum copy. When the strings of these volvelles break, the diagrams are invariably lost.

"Le pilote Luc Jansz. Waghenaer na quit à Enkhuizen, vers le milieu du xvnº siècle. Les particularités de sa vie et la date de sa mort sont inconnues. Il était l'ami du célibre franç. Maelson (dont le père se nommait Pierre Maekschoon), savant helléniste, docteur en médecine, pensionnaire de la West-Frise, ambassadeur, etc. Au nombre de ses amis, Waghenaer comptait encore le nom moins célèbre navigateur Jean Huygen van Linschoten, plus tard tréssorier de la ville d'Enkhuizen. Dans ses ouvrages, Waghenaer cite avec reconnaissance le nom de ces deux amis, et appelle Maelson son mécène."

"La réputation que Waghenaer avait acquise de son vivant ne fit que grandir après sa mort. Ses œuvres eurent une vogue extraordinaire, du reste parfaitement justifiée. Au xviin siècle, les marins anglais appelaient encore un routier: a Waghenaer" [a waggoner] F. van der Haeghen. Bibliotheca Belgica. W. 47-69. See same for other editions of this work.

The pagination 121-195 does not quite agree with these parts in the 1607 edition, much of the text being in different type.

The date 1605 occurs in the border text on map no. [22] Flandrize pars orientalior, showing that these are not from the earlier parts of Mercator's atlas, nor from the edition published in 1602.

Note.—Maps unsigned, without titles or descriptive text. Eleven maps are circular excerpts from a large map of Europe on spherical projection. Prototype of this map was made by Hondius in 1619 and published in succeeding editions of the Mercator atlases. The circular extracts are from a re-engraving of the Hondius map with translation of a few conspicuous names into english. Alternating with these are 11 maps of ancient Europe, of trapezoid shape based on maps in Ptolemaic atlases between 1548 and 1621.

Seller, J.

The english pilot. The first book. Describing the sea-coasts capes, head-lands, soundings, sands, shoals, rocks and dangers. The bayes, roads, harbors, rivers and ports in the whole northern navigation. Shewing the courses and distances from one place to another: the setting of the tydes and currents; the ebbing and flowing of the sea. With many other things belonging to the art of navigation. Being furnished with new and exact draughts, charts, and descriptions; gathered from the experience and practice of divers able and expert navigators of our english nation. Divided into three parts. The first part, describing the north coast of England and Scotland, with the islands of Orkney, Shotland, Lewis, Farre, Trinity-island, &c. The second part, describing the coasts of Holland, Denmark, Norway, Lapland, Russia, the island of Vaigats, and Nova Zembla, as far as the Tartarian sea. Also Greenland, Island, Cherry-island, Hope-island, &c. The third part, describing the coasts of Sweden, East-Finland, Lyfland, Prussia, Pomeren, &c. With all the islands belonging to the said countreys on the Baltick-sea. Not heretofore published in England. Collected for the general benefit of our own countreymen, by John Seller. Also an appendix, containing a particular description of the sands, shoals, buoys, beacons, roads, bays, channels, and sea-marks on the coast of England, from the South-Foreland to Orfordness; shewing the bearings and distances of each sand, from the most eminent places on the land; with the depths of water on them, as well as in the channels between them. Also a large and new draught of the sands, according to the said descriptions. By capt. Gilb. Crane, and capt. Tho. Brown, elder brethren of the Trinity-House. The sea-coasts surveyed, by Jonas Moor esquire. Published by the special license and approbation of his royal highness, the Duke of York. 11 p. l., 124 (i. e. 122) pp., 25 maps, 2 maps in text. fol. London, J. Darby, 1671.

NOTE.—Engraved title-page for complete work shows pictures of Englands famous discoverers,—Sr. Fran: Drake, Mr. Tho: Candish, etc.; also view of London and allegorical pictures of Thames and Medway. Following title in center: The english pilot: describing the sea-coasts, capes . . . in the northern and southern navigation, shewing the courses and distances . . . and many other necessary things belonging to the practical part of navigation, being furnished with new and exact draughts, charts, and descriptions; gathered from the latest and best discoveries that have been made by divers able and expert navigators of our english nation, collected for the general use of our countrymen, by John Seller, hydrographer to the king . . .

Preface states work is divided into four books, dealing with the northern, southern, oriental and american navigation, respectively; and that "it is the first essay of this nature performed in England". The Dictionary of national biography, v. 51, p. 228, says of this edition: "Notwithstanding the declaration on the title-page of the 'English pilot' that it is 'furnished with new and exact draughts, charts, and descriptions gathered from the experience and practice of divers able and expert navigators of our English nation,' the maps and charts were taken from the Dutch, and were, in many instances, printed from the Dutch plates, from which the original Dutch title had been imperfectly erased, and an English title, with Seller's name, substituted."

Alexander Dalrymple, in the Advertisement to his reprint of The nature and properties of the winds and moussons in the navigation from England to the East Indies . . . by John Schlers, published in his Collection of memoirs of charts of . . . the East Indies, says:

"The Work of John Seller, from which This Account of the Winds was taken, is entitled 'The English Phot. The 3d Book. Describing the Sea-Coasts, Capes, Headlands, Straits, Soundings, Sands, Shoals, Rocks, and Dangers—The Islands, Bays, Roads, Harbours and Ports in the Oriental Navigation.'

"It is very rare, for I have never seen but two Copies, both in my own possession; but both imperfect, The Letter-Press ending at P 24, with a Catch-word, This. One Copy wants also an intermediate Leaf. If any Person has a compleat Copy, I shall be much obliged by the permission to transcribe what my Copy wants.

"I have collated John Thornton 1703, who has copied Seller, almost verbatim, even to the Title Page, inserting his own name instead of Seller, without the slightest notice of having copied Seller: A more barefaced Plagiarism I have not seen! I have also collated the last Edition in my possession, viz., 1761, in which Moussons is called Monsoons, and some trivial alterations in expressions."

Vols. 1, pt. 1, v. 2, v. 3 and v. 4 are dated 1715; v. 1, pt. 2, 1717, and v. 5, 1728. The imprint of v. 5 differs from that of the other volumes; it reads: Londres, J. Groenewegen & M. Prevost.

In v. 2, besides the t. p., is an engraved title: Ecclesiarum Angliae et Vallin. prospectus or views of all the cathedrals in England and Wales . . . accurately engraved on 40 copperplates . . . I. Cole sculp. London, for J. Smith, 1719 This title contains a view of Saint Paul's, engraved by H. Hulsbergh.

Evidently a made up copy, containing preface by Joseph Smith dated 1724 from which the following is translated:

"The volumes are in all respects the same as those of David Mortier of Amsterdam, excepting the plates which have been inserted . . . engraved by Knip and Kniff."

These plates are of later date than the title-pages. Several of the plates have the following: Printed & sold by J. Smith at ye sign of Exeter change in ve

In v. 2, p. 24, is a list of Books printed for, and sold by J. Smith.

In Graesse's Tresor de livres rares . . . 1900 v. 4, p. 693, is found the following notice: "Cet ouvrage, qui ne contient guère que des planches, a d'abord paru à Londres chez David Mortier avec un titre anglais (précédé des mots Britannia illustrata) daté de 1707 et un titre franç. (Nouveau théâtre) daté de 1708 pour le t. 1; les autres volumes se sont publiés successivement: on en trouve à la date de 1709, 1715 et 1716, et dans l'éd. de 1724 même; le 3º vol. a un titre Ecclesiarum Angliae et Valliae prospectus daté de 1719. Les premières éditions, contenant de meilleures épreuves des planches que la dernière, sont celles qu'on préfère, surtout lorsqu'il s'y trouve les 25 fig. de plans et élévations de Audlevende, gravées en 1676 qui ont été détruites avant qu'il ait pu en être tiré de nombreuses épreuves."

The plates in vol. 1 were engraved by J. Kip from drawings by Leonard Knyff. The plates in the 2nd part of vol 1, with a few exceptions, were both drawn and engraved by Kip, hence the work is often known by his name. The 3d and 4th vols. are by different artists.

The Atlas, by G. Valck and P. Schenk, has special t.-p.: Atlas Anglois, on Description générale de l'Angleterre . . . avec les généalogies des plus illusires familles . . .

The supplement contains, among others, 27 plates by Henry Winstanley, some dated 1676-80, including those of Audley End and that of Eddystone lighthouse. Imperfect: genealogies of vol. 4, wanting.

Maps and plates by various engravers, including J. Collin, D. Loggan, J. Spilbergh, Sutton Nichols, T. Johnson, H. Hulsbergh, I. Sailmaker, I. Badeslade, I. Harris, H. Winstanley.

In v. 3, several plates have the imprint of Henry Overton.

river of Thames to the westward and northward; with the islands of Scilly, and from thence to Carlisle: likewise the islands of Orkney and Shetland, describing all the harbours, rivers, bays, roads, rocks, sands, buoys, beacons, sea-marks, depths of water, latitude, bearings, and distances from place to place; the setting and flowing of the tides; with directions for the knowing of any place, and how to harbour a ship in the same with safety. With directions for coming into the channel between England and France . . . 2 p. l., 26 pp., 47 maps, 2 pl. fol. London, for J. Mount & T. Page, 1771.

Note.—The engraved title contains a small map of the British Isles.

The Dictionary of national biography states: Greenville Collins, "captain in the royal navy and hydrographer, was in 1679 appointed commander of the Lark, a small frigate, apparently in some connection with the duties of the Trinity House, of which Collins was a younger brother. In 1681 he was ordered to survey and chart the coasts of the kingdom, for which purpose he was appointed to command the Merlin yacht. This survey occupied the next seven years, the charts being published from time to time as ready, and it was not till 1693 that he was able to issue them collectively in a large folio, together with sailing directions, under the title of 'Great Britain's Coasting Pilot.' The scope of the work, embracing as it does, the complete circuit of Great Britain, is very great, and for one man in seven, or in twelve, years excessive. The charts have not, of course, the rigid accuracy of those of our own time, and some of them are possibly edited from dutch originals; but with all their shortcomings they are an enormous advance on anything before them, and entitle Collins to rank not only with the earliest but with the best of english hydrographers. The 'Coasting pilot' was printed by a namesake, Freeman Collins, who may have been a brother".

HARBORS.

Ozanne, N. M.

Nouvelles vues perspectives des ports de France dessinées pour le roi, par m. Ozanne, ingénieur de la marine. Gravées par Y. Le Gouaz . . . 1 p. l., 1 map, 60 pl. obl. 4°. Paris, Le Gouaz [1783-1791?]

Note.—The engraved title page represents a ship at full sail; at the base of the title are the emblems of royalty with ornaments. Under each view is found a vignette representing a globe with three fleurdelis, surmounted by a crown, and surrounded by flags, masts, helmet, etc., with the mention that the view is either taken or reduced from the Collection des ports de France dessinés pour le roi en 1776. Par le s. Ozanne, ingénieur de la Marine pensionnaire de sa majesté.

It is evident that all the views did not appear successively. The order of appearance is indicated by the numbers at the bottom of the plates; these run irregularly, dating from 1783 to 1789. Some are not by Ozanne; six bear the signature of Lomet; these are:

- no. [41] Le port des sables d'Olone ...
- " [42] Le port de S! Martin de Ré ... 1784.
- " [43] Le port de la flote dans l'isle de Ré ... 1787.
- " [46] Le port d'Oleron ... 1783.
- " [47] Le port de Royan ... 1787.
- " [51] Le port de St Jean de Luz ... 1788.

One bears the name of Bonnard du Hanlay:

no. [37] Le port du Croisic ... 1786.

Two bear the name of Cazin:

no. [8] Le port de St Valery en Caux ... 1786.

" [9] Le port de Fécamp ... 1786.

The map was made by Macquet in 1791. It bears the note: "Ces dessins n'ayant point étés gravés de suite, les nos qui sont au bas de chaque planche indiquent seulemt l'ordre dans le quel ils ont étés mis en vente ..." The table on the right of the map contains a systematic index of the ports from north to south and from east to west.

Ozanne, N. M.—Continued.

For a more detailed account of this work and its different editions see Une famille d'artistes brestois au XVIII Siècle. Les Ozanne, par Charles Auffret Rennes, 1891. Here we find that the first edition was printed without date in 1780 with a title very like the above and agreeing very largely in its description Nouvelles vues perspectives des Ports de France, dessinées pour le roi, par N Ozanne, ingénieur de la marine, gravées par Y. Le Couaz, à Paris chez Legouaz, 7. Ste-Hyacinthe, no 4. Another edition containing title, 128 pages of text, 60 views of the ports of France, 2 plates engraved by Bovinet representing la ville des Cayes, appeared in 1819 with the title: Vues des principaux ports et rades du royaume de France et de ses colonies, dessinées par Ozanne et gravées par Gouaz (sic) avec un texte descriptif, géographique et statistique par N. Ponce; à Paris chez Bance ainé, marchand d'Estampes, rue Saint-Dominique, 214. 1819. A mediocre reproduction of this work appeared with the title: Collection des vues des ports de France et autres d'Europe, avec les environs, leurs bâtiments, ce qui est utile aux élèves et amateurs de la peinture et architecture. No date is given; 38 plates of Ozanne, although sixty were probably reproduced, are recognized among the inferior engravings of Punt, Testolini, Gabrieli, Canali, etc. Another edition of quarto size the author considers too inferior to describe in detail.

LINGUISTIC.

Gilliéron, J., and Edmont, E.

Atlas linguistique de la France . . . 2 p. l., iii, 1920 (i. e. 2048) maps in 17 portfolios. fol. Paris, H. Champion, 1902–1910. 4020

Note.—Accompanied by: Atlas linguistique de la France; notice servant à l'intelligence des cartes. 55, [1] pp. 4°. Paris, H. Champion, 1902.

"Couronné par l'Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres (prix Chavée) et par l'Académie de Berlin (prix de la fondation Diez)"

"I.'Atlas déborde les frontières politiques de la France pour englober non seulement la Belgique wallonne et la Suisse romande, mais quelques vallées du Piémont et les îles anglo-normandes de la Manche. Dans ce vaste domaine, l'enquête a été faite par l'excellent auteur du Lexique Saint-Polois, M. E. Edmont.

"L'Atlas est composé de 1.920 cartes de la France, où chacun des parlers étudiés est représenté par un numéro d'ordre. Chaque carte est consacrée à un seul mot: la forme propre à chaque patois est placée à côté du numéro qui le désigne. Elle est notée à l'aide d'un alphabet plus complet que le nôtre et plus propre à assurer l'exactitude nécessaire de la transcription, mais assez simple pour que l'exposé en tienne en quelques lignes et que la lecture n'en soit nullement gênée.

"La richesse des matériaux recueillis dans l'Atlas est extrême. Elle suscite des études de géographie linguistiques toutes nouvelles où l'on passe de la philologie à l'histoire. Des entreprises de ce genre sont commencées en Allemagne, en Suisse, au Canada. Et si l'on consulte des programmes des Universités, l'on voit que beaucoup d'éminents professeurs y ont inscrit l'étude de telle carte de l'Atlas linguistique dont les remarques ingénieuses, nouvelles et nombreuses suffisent à l'enseignement d'une année.

... "Une note jointe au 35° et dernier fascicule annonce la prochaine publication de la Table de l'Atlas. En fait, ce n'est pas seulement la table alphabétique complète des formes ou types contenus dans leurs 1.920 cartes que nous donneront MM. Gilliéron et Edmont. Le volume complémentaire, actuellement en cours d'impression, contiendra, en outre cette table très considérable et le documents de l'enquête (points explorés, sujets interrogés, questionnaire, etc.)
une masse de matériaux pour lesquels on a jugé inutile de dresser des cartes tableaux morphologiques, mots recueillis sur un nombre restreint de points etc. Nous souhaitons la prompte apparition de ce volume complémentaire qui rendra plus facile et plus fructueuse l'utilisation d'une œuvre dont la science française peut légitimement s'enorgueillir." (Romania, octobre 1910)

MILITARY.

Jefferys, T.

A description of the maritime parts of France, containing a particular account of all the fortified towns, forts, harbours, bays, and rivers, with their tides, currents, soundings, shoals, &c. Also of all manufactures, and articles of commerce, and of the most remarkable invasions, sieges, and sea-fights, which have happened on or near that coast. Illustrated with charts of the sea-coast, and plans of all the fortified places on it. Collected from the best authorities. Engraved by the late Thomas Jefferys. To which are prefixed, a glossary, and plans of the several parts of fortification, on two plates, to explain the terms made use of in the work. 2nd. ed. 1 p. l., [522] pp., front., 80 col. maps, 2 col. pl. obl. 4°. London, for Faden & Jefferys, 1774.

Note.—Various paging. Contents made from an inserted leaf entitled, List of the charts, plans, &c. exhibited in this work, with our authorities for them. Four colored engraved plates which were wanting in this edition have been supplied from an uncolored edition.

Tassin, N., & others.

Les cartes générales de tovtes les prouinces de France, royaumes et prouinces de l'Europe. Reueües corrigées & augmentées . . . 1640. 1 p. l., 100 maps, pl. fol. [Paris, N. Berey, 1640–1643]

Note.—Engraved title-page and plate. Double page plate follows t. p.; the center figure is an equestrian statue of Louis XIII, beneath which his courtiers are represented as homagers. Near the lower right hand corner is the following: N. Picart fecit. A Paris, chez N. Berey au bout du neuf proche les Augustins, avec privilège du roy. Imprint date is 1640; maps are dated 1625-1643.

A collection of maps by various cartographers including: Bertius, Hondius, Jansson, Baudouin, Blaeuw, Danquerts, Surhon, Sanson, Almada, Boisseau and Tassin. A number of maps of the various provinces of France, without signature, are probably by Tassin. The presumption is that the atlas contained originally only maps by Tassin, all of which were devoted to Europe. It is probable that the maps by other cartographers, referred to above, were inserted no. [1] Le plan de la ville, cité, vnivercité et favxbovrgs de Paris. In the four corners are the portraits of Louis xiii, Anna of Austria, le Dauphin and the duke of Anjou. In the lower right hand corner is the following: A Paris chez Nicolas Berey enlumineur de la reine demeurant proche les Augustins au bout du pont Neuf, 1641.

This plan is especially noted and described by m. Edgar Marcuse, in the Bulletin de la société de l'histoire de Paris et de l'Îsle-de-France. 1900. v. 27, pp. 161-162.

Keere, P. van den-Continued.

Petro Montano. 4 p. l., 90 (i. e. 72) l., [2] l. incl. 24 col. maps, 1 pl. fol. Amstelodami, impensis P. Kaerii, 1622. [Colophon] Amsterdam, P. Keere, 1621.

Note.—First published with latin text in 1617. A latin and a french edition followed in 1622.

Ticle states that in the 1622 edition the map entitled, Caerte van't Vrye sijnde een gedeelte en lidt van Vlaenderen . . . verbetert door C. J. Visscher, was substituted for Flandriae pars orientalior, which appeared in the earlier edition.

The Visscher map illustrates the war of 1621-1622 and appears in the latin edition, 1622. The french edition contains the original map. Consult v. 1, title 3075.

Montanus wrote the descriptions, dedication and preface.

The engraved, colored title-page is very elaborate, being ornamented with figures in the costume of the times and with the shields of the seventeen provinces. A plate gives five engraved, colored views of the manners and customs of the ancient Belgians.

The maps are also very elaborate and show the inhabitants in the costumes of the different provinces, and on each map of a separate province a small, colored sketch of the principal city of that province is given.

The names of Martini, Surhon and Emmius appear on several maps. One map is dated 1608, two are dated 1616 and a number of others 1617.

The map entitled, Le lion Belgiqve, is an unusual one. The idea of such a map was not original with Keere. The description states that Michel Aitzinger or von Eytzing, an austrian, in a map in his history of Belgium in 1587, first made use of the likeness to a lion in the topography of the seventeen provinces; added to the fact that all but four of them showed the lion on their coats of arms as did many of the cities, towns and noted families. On Keere's map of the Leo Belgicus, Friesland and Groningen form the head; Overyssel, the tongue; Utrecht, Holland, Zealand and Flanders, the back; Zutphen, the jaw; Gelderland, the chest; Brabant, Mechlin and Hainault, the shoulder; Limburg, the knee; Luxemburg, the foot; and Artois, the tail.

A map showing a plan and view of Antwerp is entitled, Marchionatus sacri Romani imperii.

Frier, E. H.

Table des cartes des Pays Bas et des frontières de France, avec un recueil des plans des villes, sièges et battailles données entre les hauts alliés et la France. eng. title, 72 maps. fol. Bruxelles, E. H. Friex. 1712.

Note.—Index to maps on title-page. Title-page and most of the maps engraved by Jean Harrewyn. Several maps engraved by P. Devel. The maps were published separately from 1703 to 1712.

The atlas was republished with modifications and additions at Paris in 1744. Extensive notice of Eugene Henri Fricx, by Alphonse Wauters, appears in Biographic nationale publice par l'Académie royale des sciences, des lettres et des beaux-arts de Belgique. Neither the date of Fricx' birth or death is given, but it is stated that in 1727 he still carried the title "d' imprimeur du roy," and that in 1733 his villa was sold by his heirs; his death therefore must have occurred between those two dates.

The following is quoted from K. Waliszewski's Peter the great, New York, 1897, p. 435: "Two officers of his fleet, Ivan Iévreinof and Féodor Loujin, started, in 1719, on an exploring voyage to the coast of Kamschatka, with orders to seek for the solution of a problem suggested by Leibnitz-Were Asia and America united on that side, or did the sea lie between them? The only result of this first expedition was a map of the Kurile Islands, but Peter returned to the charge, and in 1725 the straits, which still bear the name of the bold explorer, were discovered by Behring.

"In the Records of the Paris academy we find mention made, by the elder Delisle, of a map of the Caspian Sea and the surrounding provinces, which Peter had shown him in 1717, and which, though not absolutely correct, did much to rectify the contemporary Western idea of those countries. In 1721 thirty cartographers were already working independently in different provinces in Russia. The instructions given them by Peter were characteristically scanty. 'The latitude of each town will be taken by the sun-dial, and you will then work in a straight line to every point of the compass, up to the frontier of each district.' Yet some work was done. Special explorers were also sent out, lieutenant Gerber to the Northern Caspian, dr. Messerschmidt and Tabbert, a swedish prisoner, better known under the name of Strahlenberg, to Siberia. Florio Beneveni, an italian, travelled into Persia and Bokhara and to Khiva, while lieutenant Buchholz and major Liharef followed the course of the Irtich. The secretary of the senate, Ivan Kirillof, was ordered to use the information thus collected for the compilation of a general atlas, on which he laboured till 1734, and which is a work of considerable value."

1810-1818

Atlas geográfico de España, que comprende el mapa general de la península, todos los particulares de nuestras provincias, y el del reyno de Portugal . . . 2 p. l., 38 maps on 204 l. fol. Madrid, 1810-[1818]

Note.-Dates on maps vary from 1770-1818.

Gabriel Marcel in his Le géographe Tômas Lôpez . . . makes the following statement: "En 1810 ses fils publièrent un atlas dans lequel ils avaient réuni les plus importantes de ses productions, mais qui ne comprend guère que des cartes générales, avec la grande carte d'Espagne à 1/230,000. La plupart des cartes particulières et notamment toutes celles des possessions des ordres militaires religieux sont aujourd'hui dispersées et on les trouve souvent avec les manuscrits originaux, dans divers dépêts espagnols que nous avons visités."

A second edition of this atlas corrected by Lopez' sons was published in 1830; another edition was published in 1844, by d. Tomas Betran Soler.

Maps no. 50-53, Mapa del reyno de Galicia, and no. 70-73, Mapa del reyno de Aragon, are dated 1816; map no. 84-87, Mapa del reyno de Navarra, is dated 1818.

The map of Portugal in eight parts was published in 1778. Another edition of this map appeared in 1811.

sion, at the expense of its correspondent, P. I. Likhachev. St. Petersburg, typ. of A. M. Kotomin & co., 1882.

Photolithographic reproduction of the original compiled by Remezov and his three sons in 1701, by order of the russian emperor Peter the great, from maps previously made by Remezov, and from a few other sources. No account is taken of geographical longitude and latitude, but the distances between cities are calculated, as the map was to serve practical purposes. The headings and inscriptions on the maps are in russian and dutch. The text, a facsimile reproduction of the original russian, consists of an address to the reader, giving an account of the origin of the work, and brief accounts of the history of each map and of the place represented on it, each one preceding the map it refers to. Accompanied by supplement containing printed text and index, with title as follows:
